

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

CATHERINE CORNILLE

Why Atonement?

Who Needs It? Atonement in Muslim-Christian
Theological Engagement 11

DANIEL A. MADIGAN, S.J.

Christian Atonement Enlightened by a Buddhist Perspective on Craving 40

THIERRY-MARIE COURAU, O.P.

How Q 5:75 Can Help Christians Conceptualize Atonement 61

KLAUS VON STOSCH

Not for Myself Alone: Atonement and Penance After Daoism 78

BEDE BENJAMIN BIDLACK

Suffering and the Scandal of the Cross

God's Suffering in the Hindu-Christian Gaze 105

FRANCIS X. CLOONEY, S.J.

More Than Meets the Eye: The Cross as Maṇḍala 130

MICHELLE VOSS ROBERTS

Divine Suffering and Covenantal Belonging: Considering the Atonement with Heschel and Moltmann 149

DANIEL JOSLYN-SIEMIATKOSKI

The Clash and Continuity of Interpretation of Redemptive Suffering
Between African Religions and Christianity 167
ELOCHUKWU UZUKWU, C.S.SP.

Rethinking Redemption

Redemptive Suffering After the Shoah: Going Back and Forth
Between Jewish and Christian Traditions 189
MARIANNE MOYAERT

Judgment on the Cross: Resurrection as Divine Vindication 214
JOSHUA RALSTON

“At One or Not At One?” Christian Atonement in Light of Buddhist Perspectives 239
LEO D. LEFEBURE

How Empty Is the Cross? Realization and Novelty in Atonement 259
S. MARK HEIM

Bibliography 281

List of Contributors 301

Index 305