

Table of Contents

INTRODUCTION

PART ONE: POLITICAL ETHICS

1. The Uses of Power 3
2. The Ethics of Intervention 19
3. What Americans Ordinarily Think About Justice in War 42
4. Pacem in terris 70
5. Selective Conscientious Objection 91

PART TWO: THE MORALITY OF WAR

6. Justice in War 141
7. The Case for Making "Just War" Possible 148
8. The Hatfields and the Coys 168
9. Turn Toward Just War 178
10. When "Just" War Is Not Justified 189
11. The Limits of Nuclear War 211
12. Can a Pacifist Tell a Just War? 259

PART THREE: THE MORALITY OF DETERRENCE

13. A Brief Preface to the Morality of Deterrence 281
14. More Unsolicited Advice to Vatican Council II 285
15. Again, the Justice of Deterrence 314

PART FOUR: THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL AND A
JUST-WAR THEORY OF STATECRAFT

16. The Vatican Council on Modern War 369
 17. Robert W. Tucker's Bellum Contra Bellum Justum 391

PART FIVE: VIETNAM AND INSURGENCY WARFARE

18. How Shall Counter-Insurgency War Be Conducted
 Justly? 427
 19. Incapacitating Gases 465
 20. Farewell to Christian Realism 479
 21. Vietnam: Dissent from Dissent 489
 22. Is Vietnam a Just War? 497
 23. The Miami "Appeal to the Churches Concerning Vietnam" 513
 24. Counting the Costs 523