

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Abbreviations	ix
Map 1 The West Indies Station, 1812-15	x
Map 2 The North American Station, 1812-15	xi
Introduction	1
Part I: Authority's Tools for Creating Order	15
1. Paper Forms of Control	17
2. Creating Order through Patronage and Material Incentives	41
3. Creating Order through Regimentation, Food, Tobacco and Alcohol, Religion and Language	73
Part II: Creating 'Disorder'	107
4. Resistance	109
5. Illegitimate Activity: Theft, Profiteering and Embezzlement, and Sex	145
6. Opportunities for 'Disorder': The Coming of War, Shipwreck, Defeat and Drunkenness	165
Part III: The Responses to 'Disorder'	187
7. The Responses	189

Contents

Conclusions	221
Appendix A: The Ships in the Sample, the Expected Complements, Their Officers and the Time Period the Officers Were in Command, within the Study	241
Appendix B: Tables	245
Works Cited	263
Index	283