

Table of Contents

FOREWORD .....	vii
PREFACE.....	ix
PROGRAM .....	xi
ATTITUDES AND THE INDIVIDUAL: HOW DO THEY ORIGINATE AND HOW DO THEY CHANGE?
• Attitude, Attitude Change, and Behavior: A Theoretical Overview Martin Fishbein .....	3
• Implications of a Holistic Theory of Attitude Formation Irving S. White .....	17
• Attitude Measurement and Behavior Prediction: Some Alternative Beliefs Peter Sampson &amp; John Palmer .....	30
• Discussion Clark Leavitt .....	54
LUNCHEON ADDRESS
• The Sociology of Attitude Research Harry Henry .....	58
ATTITUDES AND SOCIETY: WHAT CHANGES ARE TAKING PLACE?
• Future Shock and the Practice of Management Bert C. McCammon Jr. .....	71
• The Story of a Most Difficult Study or Love in a Bath tub of Warm Oatmeal Joseph S. Ruben .....	90
• Consumerism and the Measurement of Consumer Dissatisfactions Raymond C. Stokes .....	99
• Discussion John Downham .....	114

ATTITUDES AND THE RESEARCHERS: WHAT ARE THE NEW DIRECTIONS IN MEASUREMENT?

- Recent Approaches to the Modeling of Individuals' Subjective Evaluations
Paul E. Green & Yoram Wind ..... 123
- Attitude Models - The Dream and the Reality
J.A. Burdus ..... 154
- A Simple Way to Differentiate Informants in Consumer Surveys by Relevant Psychological Criteria
Jean Michel Agostini ..... 165

ATTITUDES AND THE BUSINESSMAN: WHAT DOES HE WANT TO KNOW AND WHAT DOESN'T HE WANT TO KNOW?

- What I Want to Know
Samuel White ..... 183
- Discussion
Joseph G. Smith ..... 189

ATTITUDES AND GROUPS

- Pitfalls Down the Primrose Path of Attitude Segmentation
Shirley Young ..... 199