

Contents

---

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| List of Illustrations  | vii |
| Acknowledgements   | ix  |
| Narrativity and Historical Writing: Introductory RemarksChris Lorenz, Stefan Berger and Nicola Brauch                               | 1   |
| Part I. Professional History Writing  |     |
| Chapter 1. Thucydides' History of the Vanquished: Death,Narrative Gazes and Historical TimeAlexandra Lianeri             | 29  |
| Chapter 2. History beyond Narration: The Shifting Terrain ofBloodlandsWulf Kansteiner                             | 51  |
| Chapter 3. Secularization Narratives in 1950s Europe: Sources,Characteristics and EffectsHerman Paul                     | 83  |
| Chapter 4. Narratives of Global History: Expounding GlobalInterconnectionsGabriele Lingelbach                            | 99  |
| Part II. School Textbooks in History  |     |
| Chapter 5. More Than Just Barbarians: The Two-Faced Narrativeof Ancient Persia in German Textbooks since 1900Björn Onken | 117 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Chapter 6. Historicizing Present-Day European Societies byTelling Medieval (Hi)Story in SchoolbooksDaniel Wimmer                                 | 131 |
| Chapter 7. Narrative Structure of High School World HistoryTextbooks in Postwar JapanNaoki Odanaka   | 147 |
| Chapter 8. Historical Maps as Narratives: Anchoring the Nation inHistory TextbooksEverardo Perez-Manjarrez and Mario Carretero                   | 164 |
| Part III. Histories in Various Media  |     |
| Chapter 9. Social Media and Multimodal HistoricalRepresentation: Depicting Auschwitz on InstagramRobbert-Jan Adriaansen                          | 191 |
| Chapter 10. The Civil Rights Movement (Re)NarratedKenan Van de Mieroop   | 209 |
| Chapter 11. Media Narratives of 1970s Left-Wing TerrorismJörg Requate  | 223 |
| Chapter 12. Time Travel as Running around in Circles: ThePopular Historical Novel and the Sense of Historicity in Today'sSocietyDaniel Fulda | 240 |
| Part IV. National Histories   |     |
| Chapter 13. National Narratives in Chinese Global History WritingXupeng Zhang  | 259 |
| Chapter 14. Narratives of Brazilian History: From Liberal toPolitically IncorrectValdei Araujo   | 282 |
| Chapter 15. Changing LUK: Nation and Narration in the First andthe Third Editions of Life in the United KingdomArthur Chapman             | 304 |
| Analysing Historical Narratives: Concluding RemarksStefan Berger and Chris Lorenz   | 327 |
| Index  | 347 |