

Contents

Preface	page 7
List of Figures	13
1 What is Organisational Economics? Organisations viewed economically – Scope of organisational economics	15
2 Markets, Bureaucracies, Gifts Classifying allocation systems – Power in big business and markets – Exchange and self-interest in politics – Redistribution and grants: coercion or altruism? – Conclusions – Note on further reading	21
3 Economics and Decision Making Rationality – Stipulation of goals – Evaluation of costs and benefits – Optimising – The incrementalist attack and managerial realities – Note on further reading	42
4 Marginalism Definitions of financial costs – Marginalism from the ground up – The equimarginal theory – Elemental problems – Marginalism and business pricing – Business and social marginalism: strengths and weaknesses	57
5 Opportunity Cost Definition and types of opportunity cost – Assessing opportunity costs: quantitative and financial problems – Unused resources – Strategic decisions – Failures and problems – Opportunity cost reasoning in practice	76
6 Time, Risk and Uncertainty Time preference, risk and discounting – Discounting in practice – Rational methods of dealing with risk and uncertainty – Risk and uncertainty in practice – Some examples – Note on further reading	93
7 Size and Efficiency Single activities: economies and diseconomies of scale – Single activity costs: the evidence – Can businesses get too big? The economists' debate – Are large businesses inefficient? The evidence – Human and managerial factors	112

12 Contents

8	Profits and Market Knowledge	130
	Economic analysis of profits – Profits and business objectives – Market knowledge – A strategic pricing decision – Note on further reading
9	Big Business Budgets and Plans	146
	The choice of budgeting system – Profit-oriented decentralisation: theory and practice – The economics of 'who is responsible?' – Conclusion
10	The Provisioning of Social Enterprises	158
	The resource gap – Social pricing criteria – Social pricing in practice: recreation, social services, housing, the arts – Grant raising – Conclusion
11	Social Enterprises: Allocation Problems	174
	Cost-benefit analysis, theory and practice – Strengths and weaknesses of social monetising – Distributional problems – Output budgeting – Economics, committees and local politics – Note on further reading
12	Organisational Reform	191
	Organisational power, external diseconomies, social conflicts – Social choices of allocation systems – Induced social responsibility – Conclusion
	Notes	204
	Index	211