

Contents

Preface	vii
The Multinational Corporation in Africa: The International Capitalist System
Towards a New Structural Crisis of the Capitalist System?	3
Samir Amin
Economic Nationalists v. Multinational Corporations: Revolutionary or Evolutionary Change?	26
Norman Girvan
The Multinational Corporation in Africa: Case Studies
The Extent and Type of Direct Foreign Investment in Africa	59
Helge Hveem
The Peripheral African Economy and the MNC	92
Reginald Herbold Green
Notes on Foreign Investments in Ethiopia	125
Lars Bondestam
Multinational Corporations and the Indigenization of the Kenyan Economy	143
Jan Jelmert Jørgensen
Tanzania's Policies on Private Foreign Investment	178
Peter Neersø
The Politico-economic Position of Multi- national Corporations: A Nigerian Example	196
O. O. Soleye
The Political and Social Implications of Multi-National Corporations in Nigeria	210
Ikenna Nzimiro
The Role of Multinational Corporations in Cocoa Marketing and Pricing and Economic Development in Producer (African) Countries	244
Tetteh A. Kofi

The Changing Role of the Major International Oil Firms Biplab Dasgupta	275
Multinational Corporations and the Installation of Externally-oriented Economic Structures in Contemporary Africa: the Example of the Unilever-Zaire Group M. K. K. Kabala Kabunda	303
The Multinational Corporation in Africa: Strategies for Independence
Industrialization and the Transformation of Africa: An Alternative Strategy to MNC Expansion Clive Y. Thomas	325
The Different Modes of Technology Transfer John Carlsen	361
Multinational Corporations and a Strategy for National Independence G. Massiah	386