

Contents

Contributors	vii
Introduction: Challenges and Prospects of Narrative Hermeneutics in Tumultuous Times Hanna Meretoja and Mark Freeman	1
PART I POLITICS OF STORYTELLING
1. The Inevitability, and Danger, of Narrative Mark Freeman	15
2. Testimony: Truth, Lies, and the Hermeneutics of Suspicion Colin Davis	36
3. Hermeneutic Awareness in Uncertain Times: Post-Truth, Narrative Agency, and Existential Diminishment Hanna Meretoja	55
PART II UNDERSTANDING THE SELF
4. Verstehen and Narrative Jens Brockmeier	89
5. "Be Loyal to the Story": Sorrow, Narrative, and Truth-Telling Molly Andrews	123
6. Narrative as an Interpretation of Self-Pattern Shaun Gallagher	136
7. Speaking of Elves, Dragons, and Werewolves: Narrative Hermeneutics and Other-than-Human Identities Clive Baldwin, Lauren Ripley, and Shania Arsenault	154

PART III UNDERSTANDING THE OTHER

8. Identity, Understanding, and Narrative 183
Georgia Warnke
9. Found in Translation: Solitude and Linguistic Hospitality in Storytelling 202
Andreea Deciu Ritivoi
10. The Hermeneutics of Darkness: Interpreting Perpetrators on
Their Crimes 224
Brian Schiff, Kaylee Altimore, and Genevieve Bougher
11. Perpetrator Histories, Silencing and Untold Stories:
A View from Contemporary Psychoanalysis 244
Roger Frie

PART IV NARRATIVE PRACTICES

12. Literary and Film Narratives 265
Jakob Lothe
13. Queer Perspectives on Narrative Practices in Asylum Politics 286
Ada Schwanck
14. Narrative Medicine: The Book at the Gates of Biomedicine 305
Danielle Spencer
15. Psychiatric Truth and Narrative Hermeneutics 340
Bradley Lewis
- Index* 369