Preface .....	3
Contents .....	4
Introduction .....	9
First chapter. Conception of locality involving an enclosing space, area, or environment (1-380) .....	12
I. The idea of interiority (2-242) .....	12
IN, INTO (3-73) .....	13
A. Analytic study (3-72) .....	13
1 a. Enclosure effected by a three-dimensional body (4-23) .....	14
a) Generally (4) .....	14
b) Buildings, conveyances, resting-places etc. (5-7) .....	15
c) Clothes (8) .....	18
d) The body (9, 10) .....	19
e) Atmospheric or physico-geographical phenomena etc. (11-19) .....	20
f) Collectives, certain plurals etc. (20-23) .....	24
1 b. Enclosure effected by a surface, expanse, or area (24-32) .....	27
a) Generally (24) .....	27
b) Geographical areas (25-32) .....	27
2. Motion or direction into anything with special implications (33-72) .....	32
a) Generally (33) .....	32
b) Contact with a surface (34-44) .....	32
c) Progression inside a penetrated space or area (45-50) .....	37
d) Extension into a space or area (51-55) .....	40
e) Implication of withdrawing, confining, retaining by force, or depth of penetration (56-60) .....	43
f) Motion without reaching or simple direction (61-69) .....	45
g) Perfective implication etc. (70-72) .....	48
B. Follow-up observations (73) .....	50
WITHIN, INSIDE (101-137) .....	52
A. Analytic study (101-136) .....	52
1. On the inner surface of a body (102) .....	53
2. Not outside a space or area (103-110) .....	53
3. Not beyond, or not past, a space or area (111-121) .....	58
4. Not near the outer side or surface of a space or area (122-130) .....	64
5. Used as emphatic substitutes for 'in' (131-134) .....	68
6. The notions of 'within/inside' and 'among' mixed (135, 136) .....	70
B. Follow-up observations (137) .....	72
THROUGH (201-242) .....	74
A. Analytic study (201-241) .....	74
1. Passing through a channel, opening, or medium (202-222) .....	75
2. Piercing through a substance (223-228) .....	85
3. Through a point (229) .....	87
4. Distribution or activity carried through a whole extent or to the end (230-235) .....	88
5. Through a collective or plurality (236-240) .....	91

	Page
6. Perfective implication etc. (241) .....	94
B. Follow-up observations (242) .....	94
II. The idea of interlocation (300-369) .....	96
BETWEEN, AMONG, AMID (300-369) .....	96
BETWEEN (301-328) .....	96
A. Analytic study of 'between' (301-328) .....	96
1. Connection and separation (302-313) .....	97
2. Somewhere in an interspace (314-317) .....	102
3. In intervals (318-320) .....	104
4. Joint or reciprocal action, and dividing (321-327) .....	106
5. Partitive implication (328) .....	109
AMONG (341-356) .....	109
B. Analytic study of 'among' (341-356) .....	109
1. Simple position in, or motion in or to, an environment (342-346) .....	110
2. Association relating to certain localities, actions, attributes, opinions etc. (347-350) .....	114
3. Joint or reciprocal action, and dividing (351-354) .....	116
4. Partitive implication (355, 356) .....	118
AMID (361-368) .....	119
C. Analytic study of 'amid' (361-368) .....	119
1. Simple position in, or motion in or to, an environment (362-364) .....	121
2. With reference to conditions, actions, or events (365-368) .....	122
D. Follow-up observations concerning 'between', 'among', and 'amid' (369) ..	123
III. The idea of roofed enclosure (370-375) .....	126
UNDER, BELOW, BENEATH, UNDERNEATH, OVER, ABOVE, ACROSS (370-375) .....	126
A. Analytic study (371-374) .....	127
B. Follow-up observations (375) .....	129
IV. A locality thought of as a kind of address (380) .....	130
IN, AT (380) .....	130
Second chapter. Conception of locality involving a surface or extent (400-503) .....	133
I. The idea of a surface or expanse extended over (401-414) .....	133
ABOUT, ROUND, AROUND, THROUGHOUT, OVER, ACROSS (401-414) .....	133
A. Analytic study (402-413) .....	134
1. In general (402-411) .....	134
2. Extension throughout (412, 413) .....	139
B. Follow-up observations (414) .....	141
II. The idea of contact with a perimetrical surface (421-428) .....	144
ABOUT, ROUND, AROUND (421-428) .....	144
A. Analytic study (422-427) .....	144
B. Follow-up observations (428) .....	147
III. The idea of contact with an overlaid, bearing, or buffer surface (430-465) ..	147
ON, ON TO, OVER, ACROSS, AGAINST (430-465) .....	147
ON, ON TO (431-446) .....	148
A. Analytic study of 'on' and 'on to' (431-446) .....	148
1. On or on to a horizontal surface (432-435) .....	149
2. Impact or application (436-446) .....	151
OVER, ACROSS (447) .....	155
B. Analytic study of 'over' and 'across' (447) .....	155
AGAINST (450-464) .....	156
C. Analytic study of 'against' (450-464) .....	156

	Page
1. Surfaces of rest, support, or application (451-456) . . . . .	157
2. Symmetrical position (457, 458) . . . . .	159
3. Impact (459-464) . . . . .	161
D. Follow-up observations concerning 'on', 'on to', 'over', 'across', and 'against' (465) . . . . .	163
IV. The idea of contact with a surface turned downwards or inwards (480-503) . . . . .	166
UNDER, BELOW, BENEATH, UNDERNEATH (480-503) . . . . .	166
A. Analytic study (481-502) . . . . .	167
1. Covering (481-488) . . . . .	167
2. Adherence or support (489-497) . . . . .	170
3. Impact (498-502) . . . . .	173
B. Follow-up observations (503) . . . . .	175
Third chapter. Conception of locality involving a length or line (504-537) . . . . .	177
I. The idea of longitudinal extension (505-527) . . . . .	177
ALONG, ALONGSIDE, DOWN, UP, ON, IN, OVER, ACROSS (505-527) . . . . .	177
ALONG (506-520) . . . . .	178
A. Analytic study of 'along' (506-520) . . . . .	178
1. Along an exact line (506) . . . . .	178
2. Along within a length (507) . . . . .	179
3. Parallel with a side (508-514) . . . . .	180
4. Along not linearly-extended objects (515-518) . . . . .	182
5. The direction of aiming, looking, sounds etc. (519) . . . . .	183
6. Away from a point (520) . . . . .	184
ALONGSIDE (521) . . . . .	185
B. Analytic study of 'alongside' (521) . . . . .	185
DOWN, UP (522-525) . . . . .	186
C. Analytic study of 'down' and 'up' (522-525) . . . . .	186
1. Down or up vertically along a line (522, 523) . . . . .	186
2. Down or up horizontally along a line (524) . . . . .	189
3. Up and down (525) . . . . .	191
D. Follow-up observations concerning 'along', 'alongside', 'down', and 'up' (526) . . . . .	192
ON, IN, OVER, ACROSS (527) . . . . .	194
E. Analytic study of 'on', 'in', 'over', and 'across' (527) . . . . .	194
II. The idea of motion within a circular path (531-537) . . . . .	195
ABOUT, ROUND, AROUND (531-537) . . . . .	195
A. Analytic study (532-536) . . . . .	195
B. Follow-up observations (537) . . . . .	197
Fourth chapter. Conception of locality involving certain perceptions of the direction in which something tends (540-586) . . . . .	198
TOWARDS, FOR, TO, AT, ON, ON TO, AGAINST (540-586) . . . . .	198
TOWARD/S/ (541-562) . . . . .	199
A. Analytic study of 'toward/s/' (541-562) . . . . .	199
1. Gradual progression towards a goal (542-550) . . . . .	200
2. Relation of direction (551-562) . . . . .	202
FOR (563-569) . . . . .	206
B. Analytic study of 'for' (563-569) . . . . .	206
1. Destination etc. (564-566) . . . . .	207
2. Endeavour (567-569) . . . . .	208

TO, AT (570) .....	209
C. Analytic study of 'to' and 'at' (570) .....	209
ON, ON TO (571-575) .....	211
D. Analytic study of 'on' and 'on to' (571-575) .....	211
AGAINST (581-585) .....	213
E. Analytic study of 'against' (581-585) .....	213
F. Follow-up observations concerning 'towards', 'for', 'to', 'at', 'on', 'on to', and 'against' (586) .....	215
Fifth chapter. Conception of locality involving perceptions of exteriority, separation, absence, departure, disconnection, or origin (601-642) .....	222
OUTSIDE, OUT OF, OFF, FROM (601-642) .....	222
A. Analytic study (602-641) .....	224
1. Exteriority (602-605) .....	224
a) In contact with an outer side (602) .....	224
b) Near an outer side (603-605) .....	224
2. Separation or absence (606-613) .....	225
a) Off limits (606-609) .....	225
b) Detachment (610-613) .....	228
3. Departure (614-627) .....	230
4. Disconnection (628-633) .....	238
5. Origin (634-641) .....	240
a) A source (634-638) .....	240
b) The origin of an extension (639-641) .....	243
B. Follow-up observations (642) .....	245
Sixth chapter. Conception of locality involving certain perceptions of relative position (681-847) .....	249
I. The idea of shared location (682-700) .....	251
WITH (682-700) .....	251
1. Collocation in space (683-694) .....	252
2. 'With' in a definitive sense (695-700) .....	257
II. The idea of general proximity (701-706) .....	260
NEAR /TO/, CLOSE TO, NEXT /TO/, AT (701-706) .....	260
A. Analytic study (702-705) .....	261
B. Follow-up observations (706) .....	265
III. The idea of lateral proximity (707-734) .....	266
BY, BESIDE (707-734) .....	266
BY (708-721) .....	267
BESIDE (730-734) .....	280
IV. The idea of proximity related to surroundings (751-767) .....	284
ABOUT, ROUND, AROUND (751-767) .....	284
A. Analytic study (752-766) .....	285
B. Follow-up observations (767) .....	290
V. The idea of location in certain specific directions (770) .....	291
AT, ON, IN, TO (770) .....	291
VI. The idea of contraposition (771-773) .....	294
OPPOSITE /TO/, /OVER/ AGAINST (771-773) .....	294
VII. The idea of sequential position in a horizontal or indeterminate plane (774-801) .....	296
BEFORE, IN FRONT OF, AHEAD OF, BEHIND, AT THE BACK OF, AFTER, BELOW, ABOVE, DOWN, UP, PAST, BEYOND, OVER, ACROSS, ON THE OTHER SIDE OF (774-801) .....	296

	Page
BEFORE (775-780) .....	297
IN FRONT OF (781-785) .....	305
AHEAD OF (786) .....	311
BEHIND, AT THE BACK OF, AFTER (787-791) .....	313
BEHIND (788, 789) .....	313
AT THE BACK OF (790) .....	319
AFTER (791) .....	320
BELOW, ABOVE (792) .....	323
DOWN, UP (793-795) .....	324
PAST, BEYOND, OVER, ACROSS, ON THE OTHER SIDE OF (796-801) .....	326
PAST (797, 798) .....	326
BEYOND (799, 800) .....	329
OVER, ACROSS, ON THE OTHER SIDE OF (801) .....	334
VIII. The idea of angular relationship (802) .....	335
OVER, ACROSS (802) .....	335
IX. The idea of sequential position in a vertical plane (810-830) .....	336
UNDER, BELOW, BENEATH, UNDERNEATH, OVER, ABOVE, DOWN, UP (810-830) .....	336
UNDER, BELOW, BENEATH, UNDERNEATH, OVER, ABOVE (811-828) .....	337
A. Analytic study (811-827) .....	337
B. Follow-up observations (828) .....	344
DOWN, UP (829, 830) .....	345
X. The idea of relative position at a specific point within a whole or read off as against a background or scale (840-845) .....	346
IN FRONT OF, BEHIND, AT THE BACK OF, UNDER, BELOW, BENEATH, UNDERNEATH, OVER, ABOVE, AT (840-845) .....	346
XI. The idea of relation of remoteness (846) .....	350
IN, AT, TO, WITHIN, WITHIN ... OF (846) .....	350
XII. The idea of relative starting-point (847) .....	353
FROM PLUS ANOTHER PREPOSITION (847) .....	353
Supplementary bibliography .....	356
Index to L1, L2, and the present volume .....	359
