

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	ix
1 Signs, Symbols and Social Integration	1
2 The Political Dimensions of the Liturgy	25
Liturgies: The Politics of Sacrifice	31
Liturgies: The Politics of "Representation"	34
Liturgical Change and the Political Vulnerability of the Churches	37
3 Religious Testimony on Trial: The Secularization of Witnessing	45
4 Eventual Speech, Prophecy, and Secularization	78
Secularization as the Loss of Eventful Speech	78
Religious Languages as "Eventful"	82
The Irreconcilable Conflict between Religious and Secular Discourse	90
5 Seminar Talk: Uneventful Speech	100
6 In the Matter of Karen Ann Quinlan: The Secularization of Religious Testimony	118
Speech-act Theory and Secularization	124

7	In the Matter of Marie Cueto and Raisa Nemikin: The Church's Lost Boundary	140
	The Case: A Brief Summary	147
	The Confusion of the State: Broad Views and Narrow Constructions	158
8	From Signs to Symbols: The Inner Secularization of Prophetic Speech within the Religious Community	163
	Secularization, Metaphor, and Literalism	163
	Prophetic Speech in the Religious Community: The Roots of Secularization	167
9	The Liturgical Spirit versus the Literalism of the Law	184
Appendices
I	Summary of Karen and Quinlan's Story	199
II	Coburn's Testimony	203
III	Bruner's Monologue	205
References		207
Index		211