

Contents

Glossary of Symbols	9
Chapter I. Introduction	11
Chapter II. Optimal Growth under Constant Technology	15
A. Optimal Interference with Trade	22
B. Optimal Saving and Foreign Investing	24
C. Optimal Factor Allocation under Incomplete Specialization	25
D. Optimal Domestic and External Capital Stocks	26
E. Further Examination of the Turnpike	29
F. Adjustment over Time	34
G. Summary	38
Chapter III. Technological Progress	40
A. Progress Only in Consumer Goods Production	40
B. Progress Both in Consumer and Capital Goods Production	43
C. Progress Which is Purely Labor Augmenting	45
D. Optimal Return to Capital Once More	49
E. Summary	50
Chapter IV. The Foreign Sector	52
A. Population Growth and No Progress	52
B. The Case of Equal Augmentation in the Consumer-Goods Sector	55
C. Change in Optimal Duty and Tax	57
D. Foreign Retaliation	59
E. Summary	63
Chapter V. Violations of Optimal Conditions	64
Chapter VI. Conclusions on Two Good, Two Factor Economy	72
Chapter VII. Optimal Use of Depleting Natural Resources	73
A. The Closed Economy	74
B. The Open Economy without Foreign Investment	79
C. Foreign Investment or Disinvestment Possible	83
D. Time Allocation under Private Control of the Resource	86
Chapter VIII. Optimal Use of Depleting but Possibly Replaceable Resources	87
A. The Closed Economy	87
B. The Case of Forestry	92

C. Agriculture	95
D. Fisheries	97
E. Minerals	98
F. Petroleum	100
G. The Open Economy without Capital Movements	101
H. The Open Economy with Free Movement of Capital	102
I. Summary	104
Chapter IX. Resource Saving Technological Advance	105
A. The Closed Economy	105
B. The Open Economy	114
C. Factor Allocation and Output Composition	116
D. Summary	118
Chapter X. Public Goods, Indivisibilities, Externalities, and the Market Economy	120
A. Public Goods	120
B. Indivisibilities	125
C. Externalities	126
D. The Competitive Market Economy and Optimality	127
E. Summary	132
Chapter XI. Optimization with Imperfections in Factor Markets	133
A. Adjustment when Factor Productivity Gaps are Given	133
B. Interference with Trade	139
C. Interference with External Investment	141
D. Social Investment for Removal of Barriers	143
E. Summary	145
Chapter XII. External Adjustment Under Capital Mobility	147
A. Fixed Terms of Trade	147
B. Variable Terms of Trade	150
C. Summary	153
Chapter XIII. Conclusions	154
References	157
Index	159