
Contents

Introduction 1

PART ONE

The Political Basis of Law

1. Political Judges and the Rule of Law 9
2. The Forum of Principle 33
3. Principle, Policy, Procedure 72
4. Civil Disobedience and Nuclear Protest 104

PART TWO

Law as Interpretation

5. Is There Really No Right Answer in Hard Cases? 119
6. How Law Is Like Literature 146
7. On Interpretation and Objectivity 167

PART THREE

Liberalism and Justice

8. Liberalism 181
9. Why Liberals Should Care about Equality 205
10. What Justice Isn't 214
11. Can a Liberal State Support Art? 221

PART FOUR

The Economic View of Law

12. Is Wealth a Value? 237
13. Why Efficiency? 267

PART FIVE

Reverse Discrimination

- 14. Bakke's Case: Are Quotas Unfair? 293
- 15. What Did Bakke Really Decide? 304
- 16. How to Read the Civil Rights Act 316

PART SIX

Censorship and a Free Press

- 17. Do We Have a Right to Pornography? 335
- 18. The Farber Case: Reporters and Informers 373
- 19. Is the Press Losing the First Amendment? 381

Notes 399

Index 419