

CONTENTS

Introduction	I
Part I: Towards a Comparative Theology	3
A. Theological Knowledge	3
B. Revelation and Reason	15
C. Theology as a Comparative Discipline	36
Part II: Primal Disclosures	50
A. Primal Revelations	50
B. The Role of Imagination	69
C. From Primal to Canonical Traditions	87
Part III: Four Scriptural Traditions	III
A. Judaism	III
B. Vedanta	134
C. Buddhism	156
D. Islam	173
Part IV: Christian Reflections: Revelation as Historical Self-Manifestation	193
A. Incarnation and History	193
B. Inspiration and Revelation	209
C. Taking History on Faith	232
D. Incarnation as Revelation	258
Part V: Religion after Enlightenment	283
A. The Scientific World-View	283
B. Authority and Autonomy	302
C. Religious Diversity	310
D. The Structure of Revelation	324
Index of Authors	345
Index of Subjects	348