

Contents

Introduction	06
How to Get the Most Out of this Book	08

Chapter 1: Definitions 10

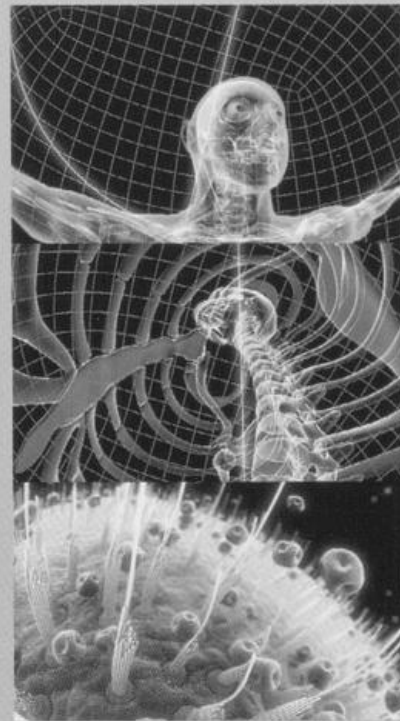

What is Animation?	12
Animation: A Process Art	18
Animation Vocabulary	20
Metamorphosis	22
Condensation	24
Anthropomorphism	26
Fabrication	30
Penetration	32
Symbolic Association	34
Sound Illusion	36

Chapter 2: Initial Approaches 38

Initial Ideas and Starting Points	40
Key Themes	48
Core Plots	54

Chapter 3: Genres in Animation 60

The Animation Matrix	62
Considering Genre	66
Formal	70
Deconstructive	74
Political	78
Abstract	82
Re-narration	86
Paradigmatic	90
Primal	94

Chapter 4:
Story Design 96

Script Development and Analysis: Charlie and Lola	98
Storyboarding – Narrative as Problem Solving: William's Wish Wellingtons	112

Chapter 5:
Writing Styles 124

Writing Emotionally: Shira Avni	126
Writing Conceptually: Johnny Hardstaff	132
Writing Character: Adam Elliot	138
Writing Comedy: Van Partible	142
Writing Comedy: Kresten Andersen	148
Writing with Sound: Uzi Geffenblad	152
Writing Experimentally: Joan Ashworth	156

Chapter 6: Animation in Alternative Contexts 160

Scriptwriting for Theatre	162
Scriptwriting for Advertising	164
Scriptwriting for a Planetarium	166

Glossary	170
Scriptwriters' Advice	172
Conclusion	179
References and Bibliography	180
Filmography and Webography	182
Acknowledgements and Picture Credits	184