

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
1 Humanity, the Gods, and Archaeology	1
2 An Overview of the Pleistocene and Paleolithic	28
3 Southwestern Europe and Franco-Cantabria	53
4 Burials and Art as Ancient Hierophanies	93
5 Interpretations of Art and Religion	123
6 Society and Religious Practice	159
7 An Interpretation	197
Bibliography	217
Index	247

Illustrations

Map of southwestern Europe	55
A déroulée of the La Marche bone	xiii
"Chinese Horse" from Lascaux, France	xiv
Two clay bisons from the cave of Tuc d'Audoubert	xiv
Acheulean-style hand ax from England	47
Perigordian tools	66
Proto-Magdalenian tools	68
Aurignacian tools	69
Solutrean tools	71
Magdalenian tools	77, 87
Upper Paleolithic tools	89
Upper Paleolithic mobiliary art	98
The "Venus" of Willendorf, Austria	101
The "Venus" of La Mouthe, France	102
Engravings of female figures, Grotto de la Rouche	104
Partial drawing of a horse, cave of Niaux	112
Additional drawings from Niaux, France	113
Man-animal image from Les Trois Frères, France	116
"The Dead Man" from the Shaft at Lascaux, Spain	118