

Contents

Preface

Stephanie LeMenager 7

Introduction

The Editors 13

Whaling Wives, Life Writing, and Sentimental Extraction in the 19th Century Pacific

Katharina Fackler 23

Ecologies of Docility and Control: Environmental Fantasy and Extractive Economy at a Maryland Girls Boarding School, 1834–1868

Sophie Hess 47

The Melancholy of Extraction: Settler Sentimentality in Canada's Ahistorical Era of Economic Reconciliation

Amy Fung 65

"Mute Endurance": Precarious Planting and Affective Ecologies in Native American Novels

Gesa Mackenthun 89

Pains, Planes, and Automobiles: Extractivist Nostalgia in Mad Men

Verena Wurth 111

Feeling Senti-metal: Frontier Nostalgia, Mining Masculinity & Corporate Landscapes in the U.S. American Reality TV Series Gold Rush

Brian James Leech 137

Sentimentality, Sacrifice, and Oil: Reckoning with Offshore Extractive Trauma
Katie Ritson 163

On Some Absent Presences of Nuclear Extractivism: Retrofuturist Aesthetics and Fallout 4
Kylie Crane 185

“All of That Wealth Underneath”: How the Logic of Extraction Blocks Discourses of Sustainability in the U.S.
Heike Paul 203

“Lots of Troubling Ideologies”: A Conversation with Writer Jennifer Haigh about Region, Extractivism, and Nostalgia
Heike Paul and Jennifer Haigh 233

“This Is Our Barn”: Agrarian Sentimentality and the Fracking Formula in Promised Land
Axelle Germanaz and Sarah Marak 243

A Conversation with Cara Daggett about Affect, Sentimentality, and Extractivism
Axelle Germanaz, Daniela Gutiérrez Fuentes, and Cara Daggett 265

Oil Ancestors: Relating to Petroleum as Kin
Fereshteh Toosi 281

Contributors 297