

CONTENTS

Editors' Introduction	v
Preface	vii
1. Resisting Domestication	1
Critical and Conventional Ethnography	3
A Walk on the Wild Side	7
Contemporary Ethnography: A Culture-Studying Culture	10
Ideal Speech Acts and Repressive Communication	13
Ethnography as Science	16
2. Beginning to Think Critically	17
Critical Ethnography as Metaphor	19
Confronting "Value-Free" Facts	21
Variations on a Critical Theme	22
Marxian-Oriented Approaches	29
Conclusion	31
3. Implementing Critical Ethnography	33
Ontology	33
Selecting a Critical Topic	34
Methods	37
Interpretation and Analysis	43
Discourse	45
Reflection	46
Conclusion	47
4. Empirical Application	48
Prisoner Litigation and Existential Rebellion	48
The Violence of Racial Meanings in Prison Culture	51
In Defense of the Computer Underground	55
Conclusion	60
5. Conclusion: Tricks, Traps, and Moving Beyond	61
Traps and Tricks	62
Why Be Critical?	68
Conclusion	71