

CONTENTS

List of Boxed Illustrations	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgments	xxi
SECTION I: IDENTIFYING SEX OFFENDERS
Chapter 1. Distinguishing Characteristics of Sex Offenders: The Who of Treatment	3
Introduction	3
A Clinically Derived Table of Traits	4
The Obsessive-Compulsive Pattern	7
The Question of Choice	8
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	12
Impulsive versus Compulsive	14
Chapter 2. The Inadequate Personality	19
Introduction	19
The Effect of Adolescent Sexual Crisis	22
Modes of Pathological Adjustment in Adulthood	24
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	29
Chapter 3. The Never-Satisfied Parent: Negative Self-Image and Selective Perception	33
Introduction	33
Perfectionism and the Fear of Failure Syndrome	34
Treatment Considerations	36
New Image Dangers	39
Selective Perception	42
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	44
Chapter 4. Exaggerated Needs for Control	47
Control Methods of Exhibitionists and Voyeurs	47
Control Methods of Pedophiles and Hebophiles	48
Control Methods of Sexually Assaultive Persons	52
Rage-Triggering Techniques	54
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	54

Chapter 5. Pervasive Guilt and Subjective Judgment	57
Rulers and Subjective Judgment Memories	58
Guilt As a Block to Therapeutic Progress	63
Judgment versus Curiosity	67
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	69
Chapter 6. Relational Issues	71
Passive and Aggressive Personalities	71
Severely Impaired Interpersonal Relationships	73
The Sex Offender's Inability to Relate to Peers	74
The Dangers of Symptom Removal	77
Repression and Trauma-Induced Compulsion	77
Emotions Suppressed or Displaced	80
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	82
Chapter 7. Sexual Performance Problems	85
Strong Performance Needs	85
The Sex Offender's Use of Masturbation	85
The Unrealistic Small Penis Complex	90
Distorted Sexual Values	94
Deviant Arousal Patterns	96
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	99
Chapter 8. Remaining Characteristic Deficits in Sex Offenders	103
Defective Goal-Setting Patterns	103
Identity Confusion	108
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	109
Typology of Adolescent Sex Offenders	110
The Remainder of the Adolescent Sex Offender
Trait List	117

SECTION II: TREATMENT OF SEX OFFENDERS

Chapter 9. Treatment Issues: Overview	123
Introduction	123
The Important First Contact	124
Clinical Interviewing Principles	126
Terms	136
Group versus Individual Treatment	138
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	143

Chapter 10. The Five Cs of Sex Offender Treatment	147
Confrontation by the Therapist	147
Cautions	152
Confirmation	155
Control	161
Continuation/Consistency	164
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	166
Chapter 11. Sexual “Imprinting” As a Consequence of Early Traumatic Molestation	169
Introduction	169
Unwanted Sexual Reactions/Turn-Ons	170
Common Factors Found in Imprinting	173
Questions About Etiology	175
Therapeutic Considerations and Caveats	178
Imprinting in Sex Offenders	180
Offender Patterns	181
Prevention	182
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	184
Chapter 12. Pedophiles	187
Background	187
Pedophiles versus Hebophiles	190
Pedophiles versus Incestuous Fathers	191
Treatment Considerations	196
Therapist Cautions	201
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	203
Prevention	204
Chapter 13. Sexually Assaultive versus Seductive Offenders	207
Control: The Main Dynamic	207
Why Rape?	210
Repression	211
Rape As Overcompensation for Perceived Male Sexual Inadequacy	214
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	218
Chapter 14. The Sex Offender’s Motivation May Not Be Sexual	221
Power/Domination Needs	221
Seduction/Acceptance Needs	225

Ritual Undoing Needs	226
The Danger of Symptom Substitution	227
Masturbatory Reconditioning	228
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	230
Prevention	232
Chapter 15. A “Whole-Man” Approach to Treatment	233
Introduction	233
Group Psychotherapy	234
Sex Education	234
Social Skills Training (SST)	236
Anger Management	237
Relapse Prevention	238
Vocational Reeducation	239
Substance Abuse Treatment	240
Aftercare	241
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	242
Chapter 16. Why Sex As the “Chosen” Deviation?	243
Childhood Sexual Trauma: Conscious/Repressed, Active/Passive	243
Negative Effects of Unreported Sexual Abuse	245
When to Suspect Sexual Abuse	248
Masturbation As an Essential Ruler	250
Writing Therapy	251
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	252
Chapter 17. An Overview of Value Formation	255
Five Stages of Value Formation	255
Sex Equals Love	261
Value Change Techniques	262
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	265
Chapter 18. Self-Confrontation and Resistance in the Compulsive Sex Offender	267
The First “Now” Therapy Session	267
The Community or Private Practice “Now” Technique	271
Caveats	272
The Child/Adolescent Sex Offender	275

Chapter 19. Religious Personnel Who Molest Children and Adolescents	279
Introduction	279
Errors Concerning Clerical Abuse	280
Reasons for Clerical Abuse	281
The Damage	285
Prevention	289
Chapter 20. Conclusion	291
You, the Therapist—Considerations	291
Final Thoughts	299
Appendix A. Answers to True-False Test (Box 1.1)	301
Appendix B. Confidential Questionnaire	303
Bibliography	309
Index	313

BOXED ILLUSTRATIONS

1.1	Beliefs About Sex Offenders: Myth or Reality?	5
1.2	Distinctive Characteristics of Sex Offenders	6
1.3	Distinctive Additional Traits of Adolescent Sex Offenders	14
2.1	A Representation of the Relationship Between Childhood Personality, Sexual Crisis in Adolescence, and Normal or Pathological Sexual Adjustment in Adulthood	23
4.1	Three Avenues Through Which Sexual Deviates Express Their Needs to Control Another Person	48
5.1	Unresolved Guilt Problems and Their Consequences: Subjective Judgment Memories	59
5.2	Consequences of Judgmentalism in Assessing Events of One's Past Life	68
7.1	Factors Active in Maintaining Sexually Offensive Behavior	98
9.1	Cardinal Principles of Clinical Interviewing	127
9.2	Cardinal Principles of Clinical Interviewing and Treatment of Adolescent Sex Offenders	144
10.1	The Five Cs of Sex Offender Treatment: Confrontation, Cautions, Confirmation, Control, and Consistency	148
11.1	Common Factors Found in Imprinting	173
11.2	Factors in Abused Children Who Did Not Report and Who Did Not Become Sex Offenders As Adults	183

12.1	Fixated versus Regressed Pedophilia: Sources, Dynamics, and Offense Characteristics	188
12.2	Comparison of Pedophiles versus Hebophiles: Sources, Dynamics, and Offense Characteristics	192
12.3	Comparison of Pedophiles versus Incestuous Fathers	193
16.1	Negative Reactions of Survivors of Sexual Abuse	247
16.2	Negative Effects of Incestuous Abuse	249
17.1	The Magnified Effects of Sexual Abuse When the Molestation Occurs in Adolescence	259
17.2	Value Change Worksheet Using Masturbatory Guilt As a Working Example	264
17.3	Substance Abuse in Adolescent Sex Offenders, Including Food, Alcohol, and Drugs	266
19.1	Religious/Moral Issues in Adolescent Sex Offenders	282
20.1	Qualifications Necessary for a Therapist to Work with Either Adolescent or Adult Sex Offenders	292