

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xiii
Chapter 1. The Strengths and Resilience of Children	1
The Strengths Perspective	1
The Strengths of Children	6
Defining Resiliency	6
Development of Resiliency	7
Conceptual Model of Resiliency	9
Person-Environmental Transaction for the Development of Resiliency	11
Conclusion	15
Strengths Story: Henry Lester	16
Questions for Discussion	18
Chapter 2. The Care of Children in American Society: Historical Events and Trends	23
Early Perceptions and Treatment of Children	23
Nineteenth-Century Efforts for Change	25
Twentieth-Century Innovations	27
Child Welfare Practice	30
Conclusion	34
Strengths Story: Cynthia Harper	35
Questions for Discussion	36
Chapter 3. Children and Family Relationships	39
Children in Biological Families	40
Children in Single-Parent Families	43
Children in Blended Families	44
Children in Gay and Lesbian Families	49
Children in Multigenerational Families	53
Children in Foster Families	56
Children in Adoptive Families	60
Children in Residential Settings	63
Conclusion	66
Strengths Story: Joanna Brown	67
Questions for Discussion	68

Chapter 4. Child Socialization and Peer Relationships	71
Family Influences on Socialization	75
School and Peer Relationships	79
Children in the Community	83
Conclusion	84
Strengths Story: Billy Lapahie	85
Questions for Discussion	87
Chapter 5. Children and Learning	89
Teacher Expectations and Learning	90
Elements of Learning and Achievement	91
Ethnic and Culturally Different Children	93
Children and Special Education	98
Homeschooling: An Educational Alternative	102
Conclusion	105
Strengths Story: Hannah Carter	106
Questions for Discussion	108
Chapter 6. Self-Concept and Self-Esteem	111
Self-Esteem and Well-Being	116
A Case Scenario of Resilience	118
Conclusion	119
Strengths Story: Michiko Tanaka	119
Questions for Discussion	121
Chapter 7. Adolescence	125
Adolescent Ethnic and Racial Identity	128
Gender Roles	132
Adolescents and Sexual Orientation	134
Transitions to Adulthood	141
Conclusion	145
Strengths Story: Zor Hollis	146
Questions for Discussion	148
Chapter 8. Child-Centered Practice Approaches:
Emphasis on Strength and Resilience	153
Guidelines for Interviewing and Assessing Children	154
Guidelines for Interviewing and Assessing Adolescents	156
Practice with Children in Child Welfare	157

School Social Work and Counseling in School	167
Mental Health Services for Children and Adolescents	174
Conclusion	180
Strengths Story: Ina Abrams	182
Questions for Discussion	184
Chapter 9. Media-Directed, Creative Child Therapies	187
Play Therapy	187
Drawing and Art Therapy	190
Puppet Therapy	192
Clown Therapy	193
Bibliotherapy	194
Music Therapy	196
Collaboration with Parents	197
Conclusion	199
Strengths Story: Helen McGuire	199
Questions for Discussion	201
Chapter 10. Evidence-Based Practice and Research for Promoting Children's Strengths	205
Introduction	205
Resilience-Based Programs	206
Conclusion	218
Strengths Story: Charles Elliott Maples	218
Questions for Discussion	220
Chapter 11. Empowerment of Children in the Global Arena	225
United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child	228
International Adoptions	230
A Case Scenario of International Adoption	232
Conclusion	234
Strengths Story: Antun (Tony) Boskovich	236
Questions for Discussion	237
Epilogue	239
Index	241