

Contents

Introduction	3
1. The Relevance of CDM for Renewable Energies in India	5
1.1 The Clean Development Mechanism	5
1.2 Renewable Energy in India	5
2. Indian Renewable Energy Scenario	6
2.1 Potential Vs Achievements	6
2.2 Enabling Environment	7
2.2.1 Central policy for Renewable Energy Development	7
3. Indian CDM Scenario	8
3.1 Ratification of Kyoto Protocol	8
3.2 National CDM Potential	8
3.2.1 ALGAS Outcome	8
3.2.2 Other projections	9
3.3 Enabling environment	11
3.4 National Policy on CDM	12
3.5 Response by Private sector	13
3.6 Role of Renewables as Pillar of India CDM Strategy	13
4. Role of Federal and State Governments in Energy Policy	15
5. Renewable Energy and CDM in Maharashtra	19
5.1 Energy Scenario	20
5.2 Power Sector Reforms in Maharashtra	20
5.3 Carbon Emissions in Maharashtra in 1999/00	21
5.4 Renewable Energy Scenario	21
5.5 Government of Maharashtra's RET Policy	22
5.6 Potential of RET-based CDM Projects	22
5.7 Barriers and Constraints Hindering RET Growth in the State	23
5.8 Barriers for integrating RET under CDM in the State	24
5.9 Integrated Interventions Addressing the Barriers	24
6. CDM Capacity Building Framework for India	25
6.1 Definition of Capacity Building in the CDM Context	25
6.2 Assessment of Current Capacity Levels in India	26
6.3 Essentials of CDM Capacity Building	27
6.3.1 Identification of Key Stakeholders Involved in the Process	27
6.3.2 Establishment of DNA	28
6.3.3 Promote Co-operation Across Government Agencies	28
6.3.4 Train and Prepare Selected National Organisations to Designed Operational Entities (DOE) Status	29
6.3.5 Enabling Actors to Develop CDM Projects	29
6.3.6 Sharing the Experience	30
6.3.7 Ensuring Long-term Sustainability of Capacity Building	30
6.4 Current Capacity Building Programme in India under CDM	31
6.5 Capacity Building Framework for Renewable Energy Sector under CDM at the State Level	31

6.5.1	Suggested Action Plan	32
6.5.2	Synergizing Efforts Among the Donors in their Capacity Building Programme in India	33
6.6	Utilisation of Development Aid and Government Budget for Capacity Building for CDM	33
7.	Road Ahead	34
	References	36
	Appendices	38