

Contents

PREFACE	xi
INTRODUCTION
1. Restorative Justice: Steps on the Way Toward a Good Idea Heinz Messmer and Hans-Uwe Otto	1
PART I: RESTORATIVE JUSTICE IN WESTERN NATIONS
2. Restorative Justice on Trial in Britain Tony F. Marshall	15
3. Implementation and Acceptance of Victim-Offender Mediation Programs in the Federal Republic of Germany: A Survey of Criminal Justice Institutions Hans-Jürgen Kerner, Erich Marks, and Jürgen Schreckling	29
4. The New Zealand Experience Implementing the Reparation Sentence Burt Galaway	55
5. Can Restitution Serve as a Reasonable Alternative to Imprisonment? An Assessment of the Situation in the USA Elmar Weitekamp	81
6. Victim-Offender Mediation: Japanese and American Comparisons John O. Haley, assisted by Ann M. Neugebauer	105
7. The Norwegian Community Mediation Centers at a Crossroads Sturla Falck	131
8. The Process of Mediation in Finland: A Special Reference to the Question "How to Get Cases for Mediation?" Juhani Iivari	137

9.	Same Programmes, Different Outcomes: The Use of English Alternative Practices for Juveniles in the Netherlands Peter H. van der Laan	149
10.	The Austrian Juvenile Justice Act 1988. A New Practice and New Problems Christa Pelikan	163
11.	Penal and Community Mediation: The Case of France Jean-Pierre Bonafé-Schmitt	179
12.	Reparation, Mediation and Scottish Criminal Justice Sue Warner	197
13.	Victim-Offender Reconciliation - Program and Outcomes Arthur Hartmann	211
14.	Mediation and Reconciliation Models in Italian Legal Experience Carlo E. Paliero and Grazia Mannozi	225
15.	A Review of Research Dealing With Views on Financial Restitution Joe Hudson	239
PART II:
LEGAL CONSTRAINTS AND PUBLIC NEEDS
16.	Diversion and Juvenile Justice: Can We Ever Get It Right? Ira M. Schwartz and Laura Preiser	279
17.	A Survey on Public Acceptance of Restitution as an Alternative to Incarceration for Property Offenders in Hennepin County, Minnesota, U.S.A. Imho Bae	291
18.	Victim Offender Reconciliation Schemes in the Greek Justice System Stergios Alexiadis	309

19. Morality, Symbolism, and Criminal Law: Chances and Limits of Mediation Programs Kai-D. Bussmann	317
20. Reflections on the Role of the Media in the English Criminal Justice System Roger Graef	327
21. Mediation Involving Children in the U.S.: Legal and Ethical Conflicts. A Policy Discussion and Research Questions Frank A. Orlando	333
22. Mediation and Community Service as Models of a Restorative Approach: Why Would it be Better? Explicating the Objectives as Criteria for Evaluation Lode Walgrave	343
23. The New Juvenile Penal Procedure Code and the Reparation-Reconciliation Process in Italy: A Chance for a Possible Change Pino Centomani and Bruna Dighera	355
PART III: APPLYING RESTORATIVE JUSTICE TO OFFENDERS
24. Applying Restitutive Justice to Young Offenders: Observations From the United Kingdom Roger Bullock, Michael Little, and Spencer Millham	367
25. Minors and Deviance: The Role of Social Services and the Local Community Tiziano Vecchiato	379
26. The Role of Probation in Restitution Procedures Jonna Smit	387
27. Adult Probation in America: Its Role in Restorative Justice Carol Shapiro	397

28. Juvenile Delinquency in Turkey Feridun Yenisey	409
PART IV: THE MEDIATION PROCESS
29. Mediation - A Romantic Ideal or a Workable Alternative Martti Grönfors	419
30. Mediating Victim-Offender Conflict: From Single-Site to Multi-Site Analysis in the U.S. Mark S. Umbreit	431
31. Reparation in the UK: Dominant Themes and Neglected Themes Gwynn Davis	445
32. Communication in Decision-Making About Diversion and Victim- Offender Mediation Heinz Messmer	461
33. Mediation in Divorce: Does the Process Match the Rhetoric? Janet Walker	475
34. Organizational Demands on Mediation Programs: Problems of Real- ization Michael Wandrey	491
35. Approaching Mediation in Juvenile Court: Rationale and Method- ological Aspects Sylvie Dongier and Denis van Doosselaere	501
36. "WAAGE Hannover E.V." - A Reconciliation and Restitution Pro- gram for Adult Offenders and Victims: The Concept for Practice and Research Frauke Petzold and Lutz Netzig	513

PART V:
TOWARD A RESTORATION OF JUSTICE

37. Victim-Offender Mediation as a Step Towards a Restorative System of Justice Martin Wright	525
38. The Function of Forgiveness in the Criminal Justice System John R. Gehm	541
39. Restitution, Reconciliation, Retribution: Identifying the Forms of Justice People Desire Dean E. Peachey	551
40. Mediation Interventions and Restorative Justice: Responding to the Astructural Bias Harry Mika	559
41. Restitution and Ethics: An Aristotelian Approach Robert E. Mackay	569
AUTHORS	585