

Contents

About the editor	ix
About the contributors	xi
Foreword	xxi
Dr Benedetto Saraceno
Foreword	xxiii
Professor Norman L Farberow
Preface	xxiv
Danuta Wasserman
Section I Epidemiology	1
1 Suicide in the world: an epidemiological overview, 1959–2000	3
José M Bertolote
Section II Theoretical model of suicide behaviour	11
2 A stress–vulnerability model and the development of the suicidal process	13
Danuta Wasserman
3 Neurobiology of suicide and attempted suicide	29
J John Mann and Victoria Arango
Section III Risk groups for suicide	35
IIIA Psychiatric disorders	37
4 Affective disorders and suicide	39
Danuta Wasserman
5 Alcoholism, other psychoactive substance misuse and suicide	49
Danuta Wasserman

6	The anxiety disorders, anxiety symptoms and suicide	59
	Jan Fawcett
7	Eating disorders and suicide	65
	Danuta Wasserman
8	Adjustment disorder and suicide	71
	Danuta Wasserman
9	Schizophrenia, other psychotic states and suicide	75
	Alec Roy
IIIB	Personality disorders	81
10	Personality disorders and suicide	83
	Danuta Wasserman
IIIC	Somatic disorders	91
11	Physical illness and suicide	93
	Jouko Lönnqvist
IIID	Social conditions	99
12	Some social dimensions of suicide	101
	Ilkka Henrik Mäkinen and Danuta Wasserman
Section IV	Risk situations for suicide and risk assessment	109
13	Negative life events (losses, changes, traumas and narcissistic injury) and suicide	111
	Danuta Wasserman
14	Suicidal people's experiences of negative life events	119
	Danuta Wasserman

15	Attempted suicide as a risk factor for suicide: treatment and follow-up	125
	Nils Retterstøl and Lars Mehlum
16	Suicide risk assessment	133
	Danuta Wasserman
17	The suicidal patient–doctor relationship	141
	Danuta Wasserman
18	Psychometric scales in suicide risk assessment	147
	Per Bech, Lis Raabaek Olsen and Anders Niméus
Section V	Treatment	159
19	Psychological treatment of suicidal patients	161
	Paul M Salkovskis
20	Pharmacological treatment of underlying psychiatric disorders in suicidal patients	173
	Hans-Jürgen Möller
Section VI	Special topics: the young and elderly	179
21	Adolescent suicide and attempted suicide	181
	Alan Apter
22	The elderly and suicide	195
	Diego De Leo and Gaia Meneghel
Section VII	Prevention	209
23	Strategy in suicide prevention	211
	Danuta Wasserman
VIIA	Health-care perspectives	217
24	Examples of successful suicide prevention in psychiatry	219
	Danuta Wasserman

25	An example of a suicide-preventive strategy: general practitioners' training	225
	Wolfgang Rutz
26	Collaboration between psychiatrists and other physicians	231
	Jean-Pierre Soubrier
27	The work environment for health-care staff	237
	Danuta Wasserman
28	Family involvement in suicide prevention and postvention: a psychoeducational perspective	243
	Karen Dunne-Maxim and Edward J Dunne
VII B	Public health perspective	251
29	Perestroika in the former USSR: history's most effective suicide-preventive programme for men	253
	Danuta Wasserman and Airi Värnik
30	Controlling the environment to prevent suicide	259
	Antoon Leenaars
31	Suicide clusters and media coverage of suicide	265
	Armin Schmidtke, Sylvia Schaller and Danuta Wasserman
32	Examples of suicide prevention in schools	269
	Danuta Wasserman and Véronique Narboni
	Index	277