

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                                                                | Page |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Foreword .....                                                                                                                                          | ix          |
| 1. Establishing priorities for action — M. Grant .....                                                                                                  | 1           |
| An agenda for the future .....                                                                                                                                 | 1           |
| The case for national alcohol policies .....                                                                                                                   | 2           |
| Changing patterns in alcohol-related problems .....                                                                                                            | 3           |
| Costs and benefits of alcohol consumption .....                                                                                                                | 5           |
| Balancing economic interests and public health interests .....                                                                                                 | 7           |
| References .....                                                                                                                                               | 8           |
| 2. Lessons from the postwar period — K. Mäkelä .....                                                                                                    | 9           |
| The community response project .....                                                                                                                           | 9           |
| The international study of alcohol control experiences .....                                                                                                   | 10          |
| Comparative case studies .....                                                                                                                                 | 10          |
| Alcohol consumption, production and trade, 1950–1975 .....                                                                                                     | 11          |
| Alcohol-related problems and problem management .....                                                                                                          | 13          |
| Alcohol control policies, 1950–1975 .....                                                                                                                      | 15          |
| Drinking, consequences and control: emergent issues .....                                                                                                      | 19          |
| References .....                                                                                                                                               | 21          |
| Appendix. The implications for other countries of the final report onphase I of the WHO project on community responseto alcohol-related problems ..... | 22          |
| 3. Production of and international trade in alcoholic drinks:possible public health implications — B.M. Walsh .....                                 | 23          |
| World production of alcoholic drinks .....                                                                                                                     | 23          |
| International trade in alcoholic drinks .....                                                                                                                  | 25          |
| Beer .....                                                                                                                                                     | 28          |
| Wine .....                                                                                                                                                     | 35          |
| Spirits .....                                                                                                                                                  | 39          |
| General trends in production and international trade .....                                                                                                     | 41          |

|                                                                                                                                                 |            |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------|
| Implications for public health .....                                                                                                            | 42         |
| References .....                                                                                                                                | 44         |
| 4. Public health aspects of the marketing of alcoholicdrinks — M.J. van Iwaarden .....                                       | 45  |
| Alcohol advertising and public health .....                                                                                                     | 46         |
| The scope for restrictions .....                                                                                                                | 49         |
| Conclusion .....                                                                                                                                | 53         |
| References .....                                                                                                                                | 54         |
| 5. Using health promotion to reduce alcoholproblems — I. Rootman .....                                                       | 57  |
| What is health promotion? .....                                                                                                                 | 58         |
| The effect of health promotion on alcohol consumption .....                                                                                     | 59         |
| The effect of health promotion on other behaviour .....                                                                                         | 63         |
| How can alcohol consumption be controlled through health promotion? .....                                                                       | 68         |
| Conclusions .....                                                                                                                               | 74         |
| References .....                                                                                                                                | 78         |
| 6. Four country profiles .....                                                                                                           | 83  |
| Italy — A. Cottino &amp; P. Morgan .....                                                                                                 | 83         |
| Greece — J.N. Yfantopoulos .....                                                                                                         | 92         |
| Poland — I. Wald, J. Morawski &amp; J. Moskalewicz .....                                                                                 | 109        |
| Sweden — K.E. Bruun .....                                                                                                                | 114        |
| 7. International aspects of the prevention of alcoholproblems: research experiences andperspectives — P. Sulkunen ..... | 121 |
| Economics and politics versus public health .....                                                                                               | 121        |
| The need for more research .....                                                                                                                | 122        |
| Conclusions .....                                                                                                                               | 134        |
| References .....                                                                                                                                | 135        |
| 8. Formulating comprehensive national alcoholpolicies — K.E. Bruun .....                                                     | 137 |
| Points of departure .....                                                                                                                       | 138        |
| Data base .....                                                                                                                                 | 139        |

|                                                                                                  |         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------|
| Towards a policy .....                                                                           | 140     |
| The role of international organizations .....                                                    | 141     |
| References .....                                                                                 | 142     |
| 9. National and international approaches: strengthening thelinks — M. Grant ..... | 143 |
| Advocacy, advice and action .....                                                                | 143     |
| Linking national and international efforts .....                                                 | 144     |
| Toasting health for all by the year 2000 .....                                                   | 146     |
| Annex 1. Participants .....                                                                  | 149 |