

Contents

	Preface	vii
--	----------------	-----

I Militarized Crime Control in America

1	The Military–Criminal Justice Blur: An Introduction Peter B. Kraska	3
2	Crime Control as Warfare: Language Matters Peter B. Kraska	14

II The Military-Police Blur

3	The Thick Green Line: The Growing Involvement of Military Forces in Domestic Law Enforcement Colonel Charles J. Dunlap Jr.	29
4	The Military Technostructures of Policing Kevin D. Haggerty and Richard V. Ericson	43
5	Waging War on Immigrants at the U.S.-Mexico Border: Human Rights Implications Timothy J. Dunn	65
6	Community Policing in Battle Garb: A Paradox or Coherent Strategy? Matthew T. DeMichele and Peter B. Kraska	82

III	Militarism Comes Home: Punishment, Feminism, and Popular Culture
7	Sacrificing Private Ryan: The Military Model and the New Penology Jonathan Simon	105
8	Militarism, Feminism, and Criminal Justice: Challenging Institutionalized Ideologies Susan L. Caulfield	120
9	Playing War: Masculinity, Militarism, and Their Real-World Consequences Peter B. Kraska	141
10	Epilogue: Lessons Learned Peter B. Kraska	158
	Contributors	165
	Index	169