

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
-----------------	----

I THE EMERGENCE OF FLAG DESECRATION AND CIVIL RELIGION

1 Protest, Social Control, and the Semiotics of Flag Desecration	3
2 The Roots of Flag Desecration in American History	17
3 Civil Religion and the Flag as a Venerated Object	31

II THE AUTHORITARIAN AESTHETIC AND ITS RESISTANCE

4 Questioning Authority in the Age of Protest	47
5 Flag Burning as Political Iconoclasm in the 1980s	61
6 Patriotism and Dissent in the Post- Eichman Era	79

III MORAL PANIC OVER FLAG DESECRATION

7 Moral Panic and the Social Construction of Flag Desecration	101
8 Moral Entrepreneurs and the Criminalization of Protest	127
9 The Media and Its Contradictions in the Flag Panic	153
10 Resisting the Criminalization of Protest	177

References	189
Cases Cited	212
Name Index	214
Subject Index	216