
Table of Contents

Dedication	v
Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
The Author	xiii
Acknowledgments	xv
PART I Identification of Standards	1
1 Understanding the Complicated Domain of MBP	3
Mental Illness Defined	4
Munchausen Syndrome Defined	4
Munchausen by Proxy (MBP) Defined	5
MBP Behavior Is Not Independently Considered Mental Illness	5
MBP As Child Abuse	6
Offender Benefit As Definitional Predicate	8
Similar Yet Distinctive	9
Neglect	12
Alternative Answers to Unexplained Behavior	13
Somatoform Disorder	14
Malingering	14
Malingering by Proxy	15
Cyclic Vomiting Syndrome (CVS)	15
Florence Nightingale Syndrome	17
Cinderella Syndrome	17
M.A.M.A.	18
The History of Munchausen by Proxy	18
Category Identification of Munchausen Syndrome and MBP	22
Simulation	22
Production	24

Presentation of MBP Identified Illnesses	26
Poisoning	26
Suffocation	27
MBP Warning Signs	28
MBP Indicators	28
MBP Behavioral Warning Signs	29
MBP Screening for Families of Suspected MBP Offenders	30
Suggested Screening Questions	30
Frequency and Reporting of Cases	31
Reporting Tendencies	32
Medical Personnel	33
School Resources	33
Fire and EMT Personnel	33
Guardians	34
Home Health Care Workers	34
Victimization Location Preferences	35
MBP Case Resolution Factors	35
Mobility Factors and Trends	37
Conclusion	38

PART II Characterization of the Munchausen Family 43

2 Profiling 45

The MBP Offender	45
Recognition and Obstacles	46
The "Great Pretender"	47
Victim/Offender Roles	47
Offender Occupations	48
Typical Offender Traits	48
Profile of a Potential MBP Offender	50
Back to the Future	51
Categorization of MBP Offenders	52
Professional MBP Offenders	52
The MBP Victim	53
Victim Profile	53
Victim Conditioning	56
"Two Combine to Make One"	57
Recognition of Victim Testimony	58
Sex and Age of MBP Victims	59
Victim Mortality	59

Common Traits Found in MBP Victims	61
Siblings of MBP Victims	61
The MBP Offender's Non-Offending Spouse	62
How the Non-Offending Spouse Fits into the Sequence	62
Determination Considerations	62
Seeing is Not Believing	63
Absentee Non-Offending Spouses of MBP Child Abusers	64
Conclusion	66
PART III Comprehension of Thought	69
3 Understanding Munchausen and Gaining Entry into the Realm	71
A General Understanding of Abuse	71
The Unique Sphere of MBP Behavior	73
"Believe It or Not"	74
Envisioning MBP and Munchausen Syndrome	81
How Does Society Enable MBP Victimization?	83
FITS MBP	83
Victimization Pathways	85
Control Factors	86
The MBP Reactionary Gap	86
Recognizing What You See	87
The Sphere of Victimization Methodology	87
MBP Offender Typology Categorization via Action	88
Subtle Indicators of Guilt	88
MBP/Munchausen Syndrome as Punishment	89
Eating Disorders	92
Clinical Definitions	92
Similarities Between Eating Disorders and Munchausen Behavior	93
MBP Fact Sheet	94
PART IV Application of Knowledge	97
4 Assessing the Lethality of the MBP Offender	99
Lethality Links	99
MBP Continuum with Probable-Cause Escalation Sequences	100
Intelligence Information	103
Intelligence/Interview Questioning	104
How Dangerous is the Offender of MBP Child Abuse?	107

The MBP Continuum	109
Likelihood of the Victim's Death	109
The Harsh Reality	110
Intentional Torture	111
Multiple Victims of MBP Abuse	112
5 False Reports and Serial Victimization	115
Review and Expansion of MBP/Munchausen Syndrome	115
Understanding
Munchausen Syndrome within Criminal Victimizations	116
MBP/Munchausen Syndrome Transference: The Police Connection	117
The Involvement of Police Personnel in the Munchausen Snare	121
Gravitation	123
Identification Indicators	124
The Importance of Attention	125
Police Personnel as MBP/Munchausen Syndrome Offenders	127
Conclusion	129
6 Interviewing the Munchausen-Related Offender	131
Preparation	132
Application of Miranda	133
The Challenge of an MBP Interview	133
Reactions of the Offender	135
Does the Offender Enjoy Being Caught?	140
Intellectual Levels	140
The Shell of Protection	141
Portrayed Multiple Personality Concerns	142
Fantasy vs. Reality	143
Suggested Interview Dialogue	144
Hidden Admissions	146
Investigative Observations	146
MBP Offender Confrontation/Interview Techniques	148
Procedural Summation	148
Interview Tips	149
PART V Stabilization of Theory	151
7 Crime Scenes and Evidence Procedures	153
Evidence by Definition	153
The Crime Scene	153

Tangible Evidence	155
Common Evidence in the Hospital	155
Poisoning Cases	156
Temperature-taking Discrepancy	157
Suffocation/Asphyxiation	157
Alcohol Poisoning	159
Video Tape	160
Covert Surveillance	160
Search Warrant Affidavits (Video Surveillance)	161
Search Warrant Affidavit/Premises	170
Covert Video Installation Logistics	170
Video Surveillance — Child Protection Application	171
Fruits of an Evidentiary Search Warrant	172
The Expert Arrest Warrant	173
Sequential Order	173
Definitions	175
The Paper Trail	176
H.I.D.E.	176
Organization of the Case File	179
Souvenirs/Trophies	180
Intangible Evidence	180
Evidencing Opinion	180
Expert Testimony	181
How does the Action of Exposure Affect the MBP Offender?	181
Infliction Triggering Mechanisms	182
Multiple Suspects and Victims of MBP Behavior	183
Unexplained Blood Loss	184
Repetitive Ailments/Recidivism Issues	184
Weekly Observation Report	185
Anonymous Correspondence	186
Victim/Offender Seclusion Data	186
Child Neglect Evidence	186
MBP Evidence Collection Tips	187
Conclusion	188

8 The Multidisciplinary Approach to Case Management 191

Organizational Diversity	191
Defining the Multidisciplinary Team	193
Recommended Team Members	193
General Team Data	193

Staffing	195
Leadership Considerations	197
Why is a Protocol Necessary?	197
The Uniqueness of MBP Victimization/Protocol Understanding	198
Effects of Community Involvement	200
Developing a MBP Case Management Protocol	201
Education	201
Preparation	201
Cases that Don't Meet MBP Criteria	202
Obstacles to Effective Case Management	203
Standardized Problem-Solving Chronology	204
Problem Definition	204
Directional Responsibilities	205
Action Plan	205
Participatory Understanding	206
Conclusion	207
MBP Investigative Checklist	208

9 Child Protection 211

The Role of the Child Protective Case Worker	211
Assessment of Risk	213
Unique MBP Intervention Methodology Risk Factors	214
Enabled Relocation	214
Upscale Victimization	217
Inadequate Monitoring	217
Inherent Risk Factors in Cases of MBP Victimization	218
Victim Safety Planning in MBP Investigations	218
Child Safety Guidelines	219
Investigative MBP Victim Survival Strategies	220
Arguments for Termination of Parental Rights in MBP Cases	223
Classic versus Extreme MBP	223
MBP Strength Despite Deterrents	223
Recidivism	224
A Prosecutorial View of the Termination of the Parental Rights	225
Custody of MBP Victims and their Siblings	226
Hazards of Appointed Family Care for MBP Victims	226
The Guardian ad Litem	228
Visitation Issues	228
Development of a Case Plan in MBP-Related Abuse Cases	229

Conclusion	229
Recommended Child Protection Procedures	230
PART VI Master of Deception: Diversity of the Munchausen Theme	235
10 The Chronically Ill Child Caught in the MBP World	235
Prenatal Knowledge and Actions	237
Fetal Murder Premeditation Potential in MBP Cases	238
Linking Action to MBP Behavior Through Motivation	240
The Threshold of Homicide	241
The Non-Offending Parent's Contribution to MBP-Related Homicide	242
Case Flow of MBP Child Victimization (Chronic Illness Variable)	244
Homicidal Actions Involving Chronically Ill Children Reviewed	245
Non-Offending Parental Reactions	247
Non-Offending Parents as Victims	248
Additional Parental Stressors	248
Parental Disassociation	248
11 The Unseen Murder of Children	249
MBP as a Homicidal Agent	249
Intentional or Accidental Act	250
Premeditation Factors	250
Law Enforcement Stakes	252
Death as a Means of Proof	253
Multiplicity: A Potential Pool of Victims	255
Hidden Historical Homicides: SIDS or MBP?	256
The Serialization of MBP Abuse	256
Exhumation Orders	257
Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)	263
Key Points Relative to SIDS and MBP	264
Potential SIDS Risk Factors	266
An Investigatory Team Effort	267
Correlating MBP/SIDS Criteria	267
Death Origination (Root Causes)	268
The Incorrect Labeling of MBP in Child Abuse Cases	268
SIDS Outreach Contacts	269
MBP in the Index of Homicide Causation	270
The Comportment of Murder	272

Indirect MBP Offender Implications	273
Why Kill?	274
When a Parent is Suspected of Killing a Child, but the Spouse is Responsible	275
Specific Vehicles of MBP Death	277
12 Alternative Victimization	279
The Medical Staff	279
The Premier Medium	280
Hospital Deception and Insurance Fraud	281
Public Trust: The Fraud, the Money, and the Know-How	283
The MBP Offender's Relationships with "Celebrities"	284
Assistance of the Media	285
Skill of the Offender versus Caution of the Law	286
Lawsuits	287
The Betrayal of Man's Best Friend	288
Conclusion	289
13 MBP as a Defense in Sexual Battery Cases	291
False CSA Accusations: The Effect upon the Child	292
MBP as a Sexual Abuse Defense	293
Parental Abduction, Sexual Abuse Allegations, and MBP	294
Differentiation Between MBP and Child Sexual Abuse (CSA)	295
Commonalities of both CSA and MBP Victimization	297
Reasonable Doubt — Munchausen and Case Building	297
Conclusion	301
14 The Significance of Fire in MBP and Munchausen Syndrome Cases	303
Arson Detectives and Criminal Investigators:	303
The Mini-Team Concept
Investigative Interviews: Children and Fire	305
Children and Trust	305
Environment of the Interview	306
The Parents of Adolescent Burn Victims	307
The Demand of Observation	307
Emotional Factors	307
Accepted Norms and Media Influence	308
Witnesses in Burn Injury Investigations	309

Ritualistic Abuse by Fire	311
Gauging Parental Response	311
Investigation of Accidental Burn Injuries	313
Using Fire Within the World of MBP	313
Significance of Fire	314
The Gratification Scale of MBP Arson	315
"By the Hand of God"	316
The Factor of Repetition	316
Gathering Intelligence in Potential MBP/Munchausen Syndrome Related Arson Cases	317
Interview Tips for Children Involved in Fires	320
Conclusion	321
PART VII Principles of Engagement	323
15 The MBP Prosecutive Stance	325
The Status of Exclusion	326
Barriers to Effective Prosecution of MBP Child Abuse	327
Offender Accountability	328
Prosecution Strategies	330
Case Presentation	331
Refutable Defense Standards	331
The Use of Expert Testimony	332
The Insanity Defense	333
Case Law	334
Other Case Law	336
Education of Judges	336
Sentencing Tendencies	338
Epilogue	341
Index	343