

Contents

PART THE FIRST: ARCHITECTURE OF THE MIND

In Which the Wizard Examines the Question: "What Makes People Think the Way They Do?"

1	Speaking Worlds into Existence	12
2	Perceptual Realities	14
3	Time and Perceptual Reality	16
4	Will You Ever Face Reality?	18
5	Reality Begins with Imagination	20
6	Left, Right, Left, Right, Left, Right	22
7	Music, Math, and the Mind	24
8	Dual Movie Screens	26
9	Invisible, But Real Nonetheless	28
10	Waxing Woo-Woo	30
11	Dimensional Realities 2, 3, & 4	32
12	One Is the Only-est Number	34
13	Four Kinds of Thought, Three Kinds of People	36
14	Carolina on My Mind	38
15	The Duality Principle	40
16	The Neurology of Branding	44
17	Why Do My Fingers Know This Song?	46
18	Will You Photograph or Paint?	48
19	The Tollbooth on the Yellow Brick Road	50
20	It's Party Time	52
21	Below Deck in a Storm at Sea	54
22	Psycho-Myth No. 9	56
23	Same Whiteboard, Same Trainer	58
24	Did Your Valedictorian Get Rich?	60
25	But to Be Fair	62
26	Getting to Know Yourself	63

PART THE SECOND: TOOLS FOR PROFITABLE PERSUASION

In Which the Wizard Provides the Means of Using the Unique Capabilities of Your Mind to Best Effect

27	Business Problem Topology	69
28	Parallel, But Unrelated	72
29	Quick Miracles	74
30	How to Make Business Morphine	76
31	Mitigating Morphine's Danger	78
32	How's Your Gravity Well?	80
33	Share of Voice	82
34	Impact Quotient	84
35	Share of Mind	86
36	Personal Experience Factor	88
37	Market Potential	90
38	The APE	92
39	A Coiled Cobra Called "Statistics"	94
40	How to Facilitate Brainstorming	97
41	What We Say vs. What We Do	98
42	Hmm	100
43	BrandingBrandingBranding	102
44	Frosting	104
45	Seussing	106
46	Being Monet	108
47	Power Monet	110
48	Sneak Past the Security Guard	111
49	Lists, Steps, and Rules	114
50	Frameline Magnetism	116
51	Being Perfectly (Robert) Frank	117
52	A Higher Level of Order	119
53	Glimpsing Chaos	121

PART THE THIRD: CHARTING YOUR DESTINY & DREAMS

In Which the Wizard Shows You How to Light the Room without Burning the Candle at Both Ends

54	The Beagle in Your Brain	126
55	What Are You All About?	128

56	Dreams and Contentment	130
57	Will You Succeed by Accident?	132
58	Are You the Average American?	134
59	The Ear Is for More Than Listening	135
60	Look Out the Other Window	136
61	"This Is My Back"	138
62	Which Buffett?	140
63	Moonshadow Medicine	142
64	Big Questions, Little Answers	145
65	An Old Mustang Revertible	148
66	Personal, Permanent, & Pervasive	150
67	Dark Water, Strong Current	151
68	" . . . a Doctor or a Lawyer"	154
69	Stray and Random Thoughts	156
70	Experience Must First Be a Verb	158
71	Wonkus Is as Wonkus Does	160

PART THE FOURTH: WIZARDS AT LARGE

In Which the Wizard Recounts Tales of Persons Exemplifying the Principles upon Which Wizardry Is Founded

72	Think Big, Start Small	164
73	Right Where You Are	166
74	"Never Had a Chance"	168
75	Priorities	170
76	Two Doctors Not Chosen	172
77	Have You Never Been to Neverland?	174
78	Finegal or Abraham?	176
79	Grit, Thy Name Is Andrew	178
80	Is Ours an "Any Road" Generation?	180
81	Pull the Trigger and Ride the Bullet	182
82	A Classic Shagger	184
83	The Rainbow and the Woodster	186
84	What Was I Thinking?	188
85	Nathan's Little Flags	190
86	Extreme Accidental Magic	192
87	The Value of Heroes	194
88	Weiners, Beans, and $530 Million	196

89	Griswold's Billion-Dollar Prank	198
90	Martin's Very Big Day	200
91	Curiosity and a Cat Named Adrian	202
92	The Loneliest Man	204
93	Moon River	206
94	How 'Bout Those Canadians, Eh?	208
95	American Indian Eloquence	210
96	Sam's Heart and Soul . . . and Sigh	212
97	Dark with Smoldering Eyes	213
98	Tom and His Editors	215
99	Another Great American Success Story	217
100	A Seat at the Round Table	219
100 + 1	Dr. Seuss on Writing for Children	222
WizardSwords		226
The Wizard's Index		228
About the Wizard		238
Ordering books		239