

Contents

Foreword

Acknowledgements

Part I Fundamentals of public relations	1
Chapter 1 The scope and ethics of public relations	3
Definition of public relations	4
The nature of public relations	5
Techniques of public relations	8
Functions of the public relations practitioner	10
What to look for in a public relations practitioner	12
Ethics of the public relations practitioner	13
PRSA Code of Professional Standards	15
Chapter 2 The development of public relations	19
Early history	19
The 20th century	20
Professional bodies	20
Europe and the international scene	21
South Africa	22
Public Relations Institute of Southern Africa	22
Global Alliance	25
Chapter 3 The practice of public relations	26
Corporate public relations	27
Consulting public relations	28
Consultancy costs and selection criteria	29
Chapter 4 Public relations and research	31
Why is research important?	31
Client or organizational research	31
Opportunity or problem research	32
Audience or publics research	32
Using research for planning, monitoring and evaluation	32
Types of research	33
The research brief	35
The research proposal	35
Chapter 5 Public relations and marketing	43
Prime facets of marketing	44
Public relations in the marketing mix	44

Integrated marketing communication	50
Impact of the Internet	51
The role of the Website in the marketing communication mix	52
Chapter 6 Public relations and advertising	56
The agency	59
How to judge a good advertisement	60
Principles of good brand advertising	61
Brand awareness	61
Creative strategy	63
Advertising bodies	64
Chapter 7 Public relations and selling	65
Consumer-orientated planning	67
Public relations and selling	67
Customer service	69
Service excellence	69
Chapter 8 Public relations and communication	73
Communication settings	73
Components of the communication process	74
Barriers to communication	77
The seven Cs of communication	77
Avoiding cross-cultural misunderstanding	79
The importance of language	79
Non-verbal communication	79
Chapter 9 Effective listening	85
Learning to listen	85
Guides to effective listening	86
Chapter 10 Employee communication	92
Communicating policies and practices to employees	93
The employee's right to information	93
Formal and informal communication networks	96
Principles of employee communication	96
Changing employee communication needs and expectations	97
Media for internal communications	97
Employee relations programmes	104
Intranets	104
Chapter 11 Planning a public relations programme	106
Defining the situation	106
Setting objectives	108
Target audience	108
Message	108
Activities	109
Budgeting	109

Example of a corporate budget structure.	110
Evaluating results	112

Part II Public relations and the media. 119

Chapter 12 The mass media: print media 121

Newspapers.	121
Magazines	122
Press organizations.	123
News agencies	123
Characteristics of the press	124
Auditing of the press	124
Press guidelines.	125
Press kits	127
How to create news for your company.	130
Dealing with the media during emergencies	131

Chapter 13 The mass media: electronic media 134

Regulatory authorities	135
Radio in South Africa.	136
Television in South Africa	136
New developments at SABC	139
Public relations and the broadcasting media.	139
Characteristics of electronic media.	141

Chapter 14 Closed circuit television and video. 143

Advantages of closed circuit television.	144
Uses of closed circuit television.	144

Chapter 15 Audiovisual media 150

What are audiovisual media?	150
Planning an audiovisual programme	151
Audiovisual equipment comparison chart.	153

Part III The techniques of public relations. 157

Chapter 16 Effective communication: the spoken word 159

Key communication factors.	159
Purposes of communication	160
Preparing to speak	160
Speech construction.	162
Introducing and thanking a speaker.	162
Presenting the speech.	163
Addressing a large audience.	164
Pitfalls to be avoided by speakers	165
Checklist for speakers.	165

Chapter 17 Effective communication: the presentation of papers	166
The 'golden rules' of public speaking	166
Rules for perfect presentations	168
Slides or overhead projector transparencies?	172
Checklist for successful presentations	174
Chapter 18 Business correspondence	177
Human relations in business communication	178
Planning your correspondence	178
Style in business correspondence	179
The memorandum	181
Public relations aspect	184
Chapter 19 Direct-mail marketing	185
Basic guidelines	185
Chapter 20 Annual reports and special publications	194
The annual report	194
The target publics	195
Key elements of a successful report	195
Design requirements	198
Public relations opportunities	200
Special publications	200
Employee annual reports	201
Chapter 21 House journals	203
Types of house journal	203
'Ten commandments' for publication of journals	204
Techniques for publication of journals	204
Launching a new publication	205
Criteria for a successful publication	206
Promoting a new house journal	208
General guidelines for house journal editors	210
Photographs	214
Chapter 22 Background to printing and publishing	216
Printing establishments	216
Printing processes	217
The qualities of good design	219
Layout devices	220
Proofreaders' signs	224
Chapter 23 Promotional activities	226
Intermediate objectives	227
Ultimate objectives	228
Efficient promotion	228
Arranging an event	230

Chapter 24 Sponsorships	235
Definition	235
Background	236
Characteristics of sponsorship	236
Guidelines	237
Why companies sponsor	237
Evaluation and selection criteria	238
Sponsorship checklist	238
 Chapter 25 Exhibitions and trade fairs	244
The cost factor	244
Public relations for an exhibition	245
Problem areas	247
Preparing for the exhibition: points to remember	247
During the exhibition: points to remember	249
 Chapter 26 Conferences and seminars	250
Guidelines to successful functions	251
Master checklist	253
Internal sales or marketing conference	254
Video-conferences	256
 Chapter 27 Plant openings and open days	259
Plant openings	259
Open days	260
 Chapter 28 Corporate image and corporate identity	264
Corporate identity programme	266
Implementing a corporate identity programme	267
Factors that affect corporate image	270
 Chapter 29 Corporate social investment	275
Brief history of corporate social investment	276
Best practice corporate social investment programmes	277
Community relations programme	283
 Chapter 30 Public relations and crises	287
What is a crisis?	287
Types of crisis	288
A crisis management plan	288
Planning for crisis	289
A crisis plan methodology	289
Implementation of the crisis plan	290
Crisis training	291
 Chapter 31 Public relations and industrial relations	298
New legislation	298
Industrial relations practice	299

Public relations and labour unrest	301
Chapter 32 Our multicultural market	308
Reconstruction and development	308
Segmentation	310
Future Fact 2000 project	311
 Part IV Doing it right: a practical guide to	 323
protocol, business etiquette and handling special events
Protocol	325
The government of South Africa	325
Protocol guidelines.	331
Order of precedence.	331
Forms of address	334
Meals, meetings, and functions.	337
Protocol for mayoral attendance.	346
 Business etiquette	 348
Business etiquette guidelines.	348
Courtesy	349
Responding to telephone calls and letters	350
Meetings	350
Smoking etiquette	351
 Special events	 352
General guidelines	353
Planning the event	353
Planning and staging a conference or convention.	355
 Checklists	 359
Dinners and banquets	359
Exhibitions and trade fairs.	361
Opening ceremonies, plant tours and visits, other special events	366
Public relations-Marketing checklist	370
The media and public relations.	374
Integrated marketing communication strategy.	376
The business plan	377
 PRISA library list	 380
 Glossary of public relations terms	 387
 Index	 395