

Contents

List of Contributors	vii
1 Globalization, Cosmopolitanism and the Problem of Civil Society: Some Introductory Remarks Darren J. O'Byrne	1
2 Principles of a Global Ethic Bhikhu Parekh	15
3 Cosmopolitan Political Community: Why does it Feel so Right? Kate Nash	34
4 Towards an Embodied Global Ethic Luigi Esposito and John W. Murphy	46
5 Consequentialist Cosmopolitanism and Global Political Agency Raffaele Marchetti	57
6 Global Ethics: Foundations and Methodologies Heather Widdows	74
7 Informal Sociality, Cosmopolitanism and Gender among Transnational Professionals: Unravelling Some of the Linkages between the Global Economy and Civil Society Paul Kennedy	89
8 The Global Compact: Corporate Citizenship in Action, but is it Enough? Lisa Whitehouse	108
9 Transnational Corporations: Power, Influence and Responsibility Sorcha MacLeod and Douglas Lewis	121
10 Global Civil Society and Spaces of Resistance Ray Kiely	138
11 Global Citizenship, Globalization and Citizenship – An Unholy Trio? Nigel Dower	154

12	Concluding Remarks: Global and Local, Migration and Morality John Eade	166
	Index	171