CONTENTS

List of illustrations ix
Acknowledgements xi
Introduction: images of others, images of ourselves xiii

1 Representation 1

And now the news . . . 13 January 2005 3
Complex war 6
Reading images of others 8
What is the Other? 8
Barthes and the reader's role in constructing meanings 14
Rhetorical images 17
Whiteness as myth 20
Scared? 22
The Matrix of Cultural Identity 24
Production 25
Consumption 26
Identity 26
Regulation 27
Representation 27
Chapter summary and exercises 28

2 The Politics of Naming 31

Defining race and ethnicity 32
'Race' 33
Shifting meanings of race 34
Monogenism 34
Polygenism 36
Evolutionism 38
Race and class 43

Race as culture 44
Ethnicity 45
Race as ethnicity 47
Chapter summary and exercise 53

3 Colonialism: Invisible Histories 55

Construction of the colonial subject 57
Slavery 57
Enlightenment views 60
Rationalisation of colonial exploitation 63
Effects of colonialism 67
Reparation movement 69
Neo-colonialism and auto-colonialism 70
Chapter summary and exercises 73

4 Theories of Race and Ethnicity 76

Primordial or instrumental ethnicity 76
Criticisms of primordialism 78
Instrumentalism 78
Criticisms of instrumentalism 79
Plural society theories 80
Marxist theories 82
Structuralist criticism of Marxism 89
Weberian/neo-Weberian theories 92
Symbolic interactionism 96
Foucault and discourse theory 98
Bourdieu 101
Gender, sexuality, race and ethnicity 105
Black feminism 107
Chapter summary and exercise 113

5 Identity: Marginal Voices and the Politics of Difference 115

Postmodernity: maps and terrain 116
Holocaust and relativity 116
Identity politics and traditional Left thought 119
Consequences of postmodern thought 120
Post-colonial identities 121
Theories of post-colonialism 123
Feminism and post-colonialism 125
Chapter summary and exercise 134

6 Case Study: Indigenous Australians 136

Land rights 137
Living conditions 138
Contested homelands: Darwin's 'itinerant problem' 142
Framing the fringe dwellers 142
The 'itinerant problem': community conditions 146
Law and order 147
Media manifestations 148
Deconstructing 'the itinerant problem' 154
Larrakia Nation 156
Conclusion 160
Postscript 161
Theoretical framing 161
Plural society theory 162
Marxist approaches 162
Weberian notes 163
Elite theory 164
Postmodernity 165
Symbolic interactionism 166
Rational-choice theory 167
Chapter summary and exercise 167

7 Conflict 169

'Race riots' or social and economic exclusion 174
The struggle for symbolic dominance 175
The persistence of ethnic stereotypes 177
African-Guyanese stereotypes 177
The Other's theft of legitimate pleasures 179
Religion 185
Conflict resolution 186
Chapter summary and exercises 187

8 Living the Contradiction 189

Diaspora and hybridity 189
Multiculturalism 205
History and the conception of the multicultural state 205
What is multiculturalism? 206
Promise and reality: life in a multicultural society 207
Critics of multiculturalism 208
Impact of multiculturalism 209
Chapter summary and exercises 214

9 Futures 217

Mixed race 222
Significance for theorising racialisation 225
Race in cyberspace 227
A pair of brown eyes 228
Conclusions and exercise 231

Glossary 235
Bibliography 250
Index 269

ILLUSTRATIONS

FIGURES

1.1	The process of signification	14
1.2	Stone Age people of the desert	18
1.3	Negro women tending young sugar canes	18
1.4	Scared?	23
1.5	Matrix of Cultural Identity	25
2.1	Negroes	40
2.2	Mongols	41
2.3	Ethnic categories used in the 1991 Census	49
2.4	Ethnic categories used in the 2001 Census	50
2.5	Typical breakdown of ethnic categories in the US Census	52
3.1	Defaced statue of Queen Victoria, Georgetown, Guyana	55
4.1	Dynamics of plural society	81
5.1	Kabyle	127
5.2	Sudanese	128
5.3	Arabia	129
5.4	Veils, Egypt	130
5.5	'A Pleasing Contrast'	132
6.1	Australia, from terra nullius, 'empty', in 1788 to 'full' in 1988	138
6.2	'Breathing while Black'	139
6.3	'Australian Aborigines' – typical representations of Aboriginal culture	145
6.4	Front page of Northern Territory News, 15 April 2003	149
6.5	'Amongst the Queensland Blacks'	151
6.6	'Nature – Civilization'	151
6.7	'England – Blackfellows at home'	152
6.8	'Purposeful drinking'	153
6.9	David Timber, Coordinator of the Kumbutjil Association at One Mile Dam Community near Darwin	160

7.1 'Only believe all things are possible' 172
8.1 Zapata sign for underground station Zapata in Mexico City 203
8.2 Beginning the struggle – Zapatistas in San Cristobal de Las Casas 1991 204
8.3 Celebrating diversity 212
9.1 'Life Savers' 229

TABLES

1.1 Shifting faces of the Other 12
2.1 Evolving discourses of race 35
6.1 Patterns of indigenous disadvantage 139