

Contents

List of Tables	xiii
List of Abbreviations	xv
1. The Politics of Retiring the State	1
2. Explaining Pension Privatization in the 1990s	24
3. The Politics of Sweeping Privatization: Pension Policy in Mexico in the 1990s	61
4. The Politics of Partial Privatization: Pension Policy in Argentina in the 1990s	98
5. The Politics of Aborted Reform: Pension Policy in Brazil in the 1990s	138
6. The Politics of Pension Privatization Around the World	165
7. Institutions, Interest Groups, and Pension Privatization	202
8. Implications for Theory and Policy	229
Notes	251
Works Cited	265
Index	297

Tables

1.1	Index of Degree of Pension Privatization	16
1.2	Pension Privatization Schemes in Latin America	18
2.1	Economic Determinants of Pension Reform Preferences	35
2.2	The New Economic Logic of Social Security Reform	40
2.3	The Determinants of Pension Reform Outcomes at Different Stages of the Policy Process	59
3.1	The Evolution of Social Security Coverage in Mexico	64
3.2	Financial Problems of the Mexican Social Security Institute	67
3.3	The 1995 Mexican Pension Reform	94
4.1	Financial Problems of the Argentine Pension System	103
4.2	Modifications to the Argentine Pension Reform Bill	127
4.3	Results of the Vote to Return the Argentine Pension Reform Bill to the Committee	133
4.4	The 1993 Argentine Pension Reform	135
5.1	Financial Indicators of the Main Brazilian Pension System	143
5.2	The 1998 Brazilian Social Security Reform	163
6.1	Public Pension Spending and Pension Reform	168
6.2	Domestic Savings Rates Around the World, 1990–1995	172
6.3	The Determinants of Pension Privatization Around the World (probit analyses)	194
6.4	The Determinants of Pension Privatization Around the World (OLS regression analyses)	199
7.1	Institutional Determinants of the Degree of Pension Privatization	204
8.1	The Performance of Private Pension Systems in Latin America	242