

Contents

Introduction	Robert Fine and Charles Turner	1
1.	The Holocaust's Life as a Ghost Zygmunt Bauman	7
2.	Hannah Arendt: Politics and Understanding after the Holocaust Robert Fine	19
3.	Whither the Broken Middle? Rose and Fackenheim on Mourning, Modernity and the Holocaust Anthony Gorman	47
4.	Good against Evil? H.G. Adler, T.W. Adorno and the Representation of the Holocaust Jeremy Adler	71
5.	'After Auschwitz': Trauma and the Grammar of Ethics J.M. Bernstein	101
6.	Lyotard: Emancipation, Anti-Semitism and 'the Jews' David Seymour	125
7.	Eradicating Evil: Levinas, Judaism and the Holocaust Victor J. Seidler	141
8.	Silence – Voice – Representation Heidrun Frieze	159
9.	Friends and Others: Lessing's Die Juden and Nathan der Weise Andrew Benjamin	179
10.	The Visibility of the Holocaust: Franz Neumann and the Nuremberg Trials Michael Salter	197
11.	Holocaust Testimony and the Challenge to the Philosophy of History Dan Stone	219
12.	Open Behind: Myth and Politics Charles Turner	235
	Notes on Contributors	259
	Name Index	263
	SubjectIndex	265