

Table of Contents

Preface
Jorge Braga de Macedo and Enrique V. Iglesias	7
Overview
Helmut Reisen	9

PART ONE

INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL MARKETS AND LATIN AMERICA

What's Wrong with International Financial Markets
Eduardo Fernández-Arias and Ricardo Hausmann	19
The Paris Club and the Private Sector
Philippe de Fontaine Vive	41
Getting it Right: What to Reform in International Financial Markets
Eduardo Fernández-Arias and Ricardo Hausmann	45
Revisions to the Basel Accord and Sovereign Ratings
Helmut Reisen	71
Exchange Rate Arrangements for the New Architecture
Ricardo Hausmann	81

PART TWO

NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL RESPONSES

Co-ordination for Stability
Ernesto Acevedo	97
The Complementarity of National and International Reform
Marcos Caramuru de Paiva	101
Global Finance from a Latin American Viewpoint
Pablo Guidotti	105
Financial Globalisation Seen from Europe and from France
Jean Lemierre	109
Global Finance from a European Viewpoint
Vittorio Grilli	113
Excessive Short-term Flows
Klaus Regling	115
Post-crisis Reconstruction: the National Dimension
Ignazio Visco	119
Programme	125
List of Authors and Participants	131