

Contents

Foreword	vii
Beth Richie and Carol Brigman
Introduction	xi
 PART I: THE POLITICAL AND SOCIAL CONTEXT OF EVALUATION	 1
1. The Evolution of the Violence Against Women Social Movement and Services for Victims	3
The History of the Violence Against Women Movements	4
Linking Past and Present: Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Services	13
Emerging Demands for Program Evaluation of Rape Crisis Centers and Domestic Violence Shelters	20
Key Points	23
2. Collaboration in Evaluation Research	25
Trust	26
Power and Control	29
Time Perspective	33
Expertise	35
Emotional Stress	36
Conclusion	38
Key Points	39