

Contents in Brief

Introduction to the Volume: Ethics in Multinational Corporations	1
Brij Nino Kumar and Horst Steinmann

Part One

Theoretical Foundation of Corporate and Management Ethics in the Context of Multinational Enterprise and Globalization	11
---	-----------

Corporate Ethics and Global Business: Philosophical Considerations on Intercultural Management	13
Horst Steinmann and Andreas Georg Scherer

Constructivist Anthropology and Cultural Pluralism: Methodological Reflections on Cultural Integration.....	47
Harald Wohlrapp

The Competitive Context of Ethical Decision-Making in Business	65
S. Prakash Sethi and Linda M. Sama

The Role of International Industry Associations in the Development and Implementation of Corporate Ethics: The Case of the Chemical Industry and Responsible Care	87
Hans-Peter Meister and Henning Banthien

Social Capital Investments, Property Rights and the Ethics of Win-Win: Why Multinational Enterprise Management Should Engage in Institution Building of their Host Countries	109
André Habisch

Globalization, Development and Ethics: Moral Responsibility and Strategies of International Management in the Perspective of 'Sustainable Development'	127
Brij Nino Kumar and Ina Graf

Part Two

Ethics in International Strategies and Management Functions	161
--	------------

Global Responsibility for Sustainable Development: The Role of Multinational Corporations	163
Klaus M. Leisinger

8	Corruption in International Business Relations: Problems and Solutions.....	183
	Michael H. Wiehen
9	Ethics – A Global Business Challenge.....	213
	Robert D. Haas
10	Ethical Issues in International Marketing	221
	Gopalkrishnan R. Iyer
11	Concepts and Experience of the “Valuing Diversity and Ethics” Workshops at Levi Strauss and Company.....	243
	Marvin T. Brown
12	Orientation for a Globally Competent Human Resources Function in Preventing and Resolving Cross-cultural Conflicts	259
	D.J. Clackworthy
	Part Three
	Morals in Religion and National Traditions: Cultures as Points of Departure for Foundations of Corporate Ethics in International Business	279
13	Ethics for Business and Management: Explorations in Hindu Thought.....	281
	Shitangshu K. Chakraborty
14	Business Ethics in China: Confucianism, Socialist Market Economy and the Multinational Enterprises.....	309
	Kam-hon Lee
15	“Contextualism” in Business and Ethical Issues in Japan	323
	Iwao Taka
16	An Islamic Framework for International Marketing Ethics.....	341
	Mohammad Saeed and Zafar U. Ahmed
17	Business and Corporate Ethics in the USA: Philosophy and Practice	367
	Georges Enderle
18	Business Ethics in the Catholic Value System: The Spanish Case	401
	Adela Cortina

19

Business Ethics in a Transforming Economy:
Applying the Integrative Social Contracts Theory to Russia 419
Sheila M. Puffer and Daniel J. McCarthy

20

The Interfaith Declaration: Context, Issues and Problems of Application of a Code of Ethics for International Business
among those of three Major Religions. 439
Simon Webley

Contents

Introduction to the Volume: Ethics in Multinational Corporations..	1
Brij Nino Kumar and Horst Steinmann

1 An Arising Problem in International Business Practice.....	1
2 Ethics in MNCs: Aspects of the Conceptual Framework of the Volume ...	3
3 Summary of Contributions	4
References	10

Part One

Theoretical Foundation of Corporate and Management Ethics in the Context of Multinational Enterprise and Globalization.....	11
--	-----------

Corporate Ethics and Global Business: Philosophical Considerations on Intercultural Management	13
Horst Steinmann and Andreas Georg Scherer

1 The Point of Departure: The Multinational Enterprise in the Tense Area of Structural Globalization and Cultural Fragmentation.....	13
2 The US-Model Business Principles – A Recent Suggestion and its Problems.....	16
2.1 The US-Model Business Principles.....	16
2.2 The US-Initiative Seen From the Situation of Global Cultural and Economic Conflict	17
2.3 The Philosophical Fundamental Problems of the US-Initiative	19
3 The Reactions of Management Theory	20
4 Philosophical Perspectives: Universalism and Culturalism	22
4.1 The Problem Situation	22
4.2 Transcendental Pragmatics: A Universalistic Perspective	23
4.3 The Culturalistic Suggestion of Methodic Constructivism	28
4.3.1 The Ethical-Political Concept of Lorenzen	29
4.3.2 The Culturalistic Approach of Kambartel	30
4.3.3 The Concept of Wohlrapp	32
5 Consequences for the Management of International Companies	35
6 Final Remarks	39
References.....	39

Constructivist Anthropology and Cultural Pluralism:
Methodological Reflections on Cultural Integration.....	47
Harald Wohlrapp
1 On the Meaning of the Question and the Link with Constructivism	47
2 Paul Lorenzen's Proposals on Political Anthropology	49
3 Critique of Two Presuppositions.....	52
4 Constructivist Method and Interaction with Respect to Interculturality ...	55
5 Three Steps of Communicative Cultural Integration	58
5.1 Experience.....	58
5.2 Understanding	59
5.3 Producing Peaceability.....	60
References	62
The Competitive Context of Ethical Decision-Making in Business	65
S. Prakash Sethi and Linda M. Sama
1 Abstract	65
2 Scope of the Paper.....	68
3 Business Ethics Defined.....	69
4 Linkages between Competitive Environment and Ethical Business Behavior	70
5 Linkages between Industry Structure and Ethical Business Behavior.....	72
6 Summary and Implications for Future Research.....	81
References	83
The Role of International Industry Associations in the Development and Implementation of Corporate Ethics:
The Case of the Chemical Industry and Responsible Care	87
Hans-Peter Meister and Henning Banthien
1 Corporate Ethics as Interactive Economics	87
1.1 Framework as a Moral Location.....	88
1.2 Corporate Responsibility: Ethical Options for a Company	89
2 Responsibility for Rules: Sharing the Responsibility between Company and Industry Association.....	91
2.1 The Responsible Care Program	93
2.2 Results of the Responsible Care Initiative.....	96
2.3 Appreciation of Responsible Care.....	97
2.4 Dialogue is a Main Principle	98

3	Recommendations for the Further Development of the Program	99
3.1	The Principle of Interaction: Innovation Created out of Cooperation and Communication	100
3.2	Broadened Problem Horizons: Sustainability, Globalization and Active Trading of the Chemical Industry	101
3.3	Problems in the Implementation: Support through the Mediatory Function of Industry Associations	102
4	The Realization of Discourses in the Economy	104
	References	106

Social Capital Investments, Property Rights and the Ethics of Win-Win Why Multinational Enterprise Management Should Engage in Institution Building of their Host Countries	109
André Habisch

1	Introduction	109
2	Trust and Social Capital Theory	110
3	Trust, Institutions and Development	112
4	Social Capital Creation and the Role of MNE	114
5	Social Capital, Distrust and the Recognition of Property Rights	117
6	Roads of Engagement: Investing in Social Capital	119
7	Social Capital Investments and the Changing Relations between Business and State	122
8	Business, State and the Ethics of Win-Win	123
	References	125

Globalization, Development and Ethics: Moral Responsibility and Strategies of International Management in the Perspective of 'Sustainable Development'	127
Brij Nino Kumar and Ina Graf

1	Introduction	127
1.1	Globalization: Pitfall or Panacea?	127
1.2	Objective of the Paper	128
2	The Multinational Corporation and their Moral Responsibility in Global Economy	129
2.1	Features of Multinational Corporation and Globalization	129
2.1.1	Transfer of Resources	129
2.1.2	Local Responsiveness versus Global Integration	129
2.1.3	Aspects of Globalization	130
2.2	The Role of Multinational Corporations in the Global World and their Moral Responsibility	132

3 Reflections on the Foundations of Ethical Behaviour of Multinational Corporations..... 135

3.1 Normative Guidelines for Legitimizing Multinational Corporations 136

3.1.1 Concept of Sustainable Development..... 136

3.1.2 Conflict Potential of Globalization with Reference to Sustainable Development..... 137

3.1.3 Norms for Sustainable Action 144

3.2 Processual Procedure for Legitimizing Multinational Corporations 145

4 Multinational Strategy for Sustainable Development..... 146

4.1 Planning of the Objective Function..... 146

4.1.1 Awareness and Commitment to Sustainable Development 146

4.1.2 Goal Conflict 148

4.2 Strategic Analysis 149

4.2.1 Environmental Analysis..... 149

4.2.2 Corporate Analysis 150

4.3 Strategy Formulation 151

4.3.1 Resource Transfer Strategy..... 151

4.3.2 International Management Strategy..... 152

4.4 Strategy Implementation..... 154

5 Conclusion 155

References..... 157

Part Two

Ethics in International Strategies and Management Functions 161

Global Responsibility for Sustainable Development:
The Role of Multinational Corporations 163

Klaus M. Leisinger

1 Industry’s Conduct, Environmental Protection, and the Sociopolitical Mesh..... 164

2 The Question of Different Environmental Standards as between Industrial and Developing Countries 168

2.1 A Holistic Perspective: the “EcoSpace” Concept..... 169

2.2 Consequences for Individual Companies 172

2.3 Exports of Special Wastes to Developing Countries..... 175

2.4 The Question of Variable Product Policies as between Industrial and Developing Countries..... 176

2.5	Variable Product Ranges as a Consequence of Distinct Market Characteristics	177
2.6	The DDT Case	177
	References	181

Corruption in International Business Relations: Problems and Solutions 183
Michael H. Wiehen

1	Introduction	183
2	Definitions	184
3	Aspects of Corruption	185
4	The Corruption Perception Index	185
5	Legal Treatment	186
6	Sample Cases	187
6.1	Zaire – International Airports Instrumentation Case	187
6.2	Belgium – Augusta Helicopter Case	187
6.3	India – Bofors Case	187
6.4	Japan – Pharmaceuticals Scandal	188
6.5	Germany – Munich Water Treatment Works Scandal	188
6.6	Singapore – Power Generation Investment Case	188
7	Costs of Corruption	189
7.1	Type of Costs	189
7.2	Who bears the costs?	190
8	Public Reaction	191
9	Corrective Action	192
9.1	International Initiatives	193
9.1.1	The United Nations	193
9.1.2	The World Trade Organization	194
9.1.3	The Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD)	195
9.1.4	European Institutions	198
9.1.5	Other Regional Initiatives	200
9.1.6	The International Chamber of Commerce (ICC)	201
9.2	Company Codes of Conduct	203
9.2.1	Position of Industry	203
9.2.2	The Consulting Engineers	204
9.2.3	Self-Protection by Government Contracting Agencies	206
9.3	The Role of the International Financial Institutions (IFIs)	207
9.3.1	Civil Society	208
9.3.2	Transparency International (TI)	208
9.3.3	The TI Integrity Pact (TI-IP)	209
10	Conclusion	210

Ethics – A Global Business Challenge..... 213
Robert D. Haas

Ethical Issues in International Marketing 221
Gopalkrishnan R. Iyer

1 Introduction 221
2 Ethical Theory in Marketing and International Business..... 223
3 Ethical Issues in International Marketing Exchanges 226
4 Ethical Adaptation of International Marketing Strategies 230
 4.1 International Market Selection and Access Decisions 231
 4.2 International Product Strategy 232
 4.3 International Promotions Strategy 232
 4.4 International Pricing Strategy 233
 4.5 International Distribution Strategy 234
5 International Marketing Ethics and Transnational Corporations 235
 5.1 Costs/Profitability 235
 5.2 Competition 235
 5.3 Cultural Context 236
6 Conclusions 237
 References 239

Concepts and Experience of the “Valuing Diversity and Ethics”
Workshops at Levi Strauss and Company..... 243
Marvin T. Brown

1 An Overview of the Valuing Diversity and Ethics Workshop..... 243
2 Connecting Ethics and Diversity..... 244
3 Using Principles to Connect Ethics and Diversity 245
4 Using Assumptions to Connect Ethics and Diversity 248
5 The Ethical Decision Making Model..... 248
6 Analysis of Assumptions 251
7 Using Dialogue to Connect Ethics and Diversity. 252
8 Four Components of Dialogue..... 253
9 Balancing of Inquiry and Advocacy 254
10 Acknowledging Ambiguity..... 254
11 The Resources are in the Room 256
 References 256

Orientation for a Globally Competent Human Resources Function in Preventing and Resolving Cross-cultural Conflicts 259
D.J. Clackworthy

1 Abstract 259
2 Definitions 259
3 The “Whys” of a Cross-cultural Conflict 260
4 Finding a Common Language 260
 4.1 Universal Interaction Modes 261
 4.2 Recognizing and Understanding Interaction Modes 265
5 The “Whats” of a Cross-cultural Conflict 265
 5.1 Modes and Strategies 265
 5.2 The Interaction Modes are not Conflict Solving Strategies 265
6 Ethical, Interculturally Effective Interaction and Transaction
Strategies 266
 6.1 Integration through Dialogue 266
 6.2 Purpose Generation 268
7 Implications for Business Leadership 269
8 The “Hows” of a Cross-cultural Conflict 271
9 Preventing Culture Clashes in a Global HR Function 272
 9.1 Strategic HR Leadership 272
 9.2 HR Development 273
 9.3 Corporate Communications 274
 9.4 Employment Contracts 275
 9.5 Employee Support 276
 9.6 Human Resources within the HR Function 276
10 Conclusion 277
References 277

Part ThreeMorals in Religion and National Traditions:*Cultures as Points of Departure for Foundations of Corporate*Ethics in International Business 279*Ethics for Business and Management:Explorations in Hindu Thought..... 281Shitangshu K. Chakraborty

1	The Setting	281
2	Involution Theory and the Will-to-Ethics	282
3	Excellence, Competition and Ethics	286
4	Guna, Karmavada and Karmayoga Theories of Ethics.....	291
4.1	Guna Theory	292
4.1.1	On Knowledge	292
4.1.2	On Work	293
4.1.3	On Intellect	292
4.2	Karmavada Theory	294
4.3	Nishkam Karma.....	296
5	Conclusion: The Indian Theory of Consciousness Ethics	297
6	Ethics/Non-Ethics in Action: A Few Vignettes	299
6.1	Mr. Gopal of National Engineering Ltd.	299
6.2	Fast Growth Ltd.....	301
6.3	Cement Conglomerate Ltd.	302
6.4	David Airlines vs. Goliath Airways	304
6.5	Pesticides Incorporated Ltd.	305
	References	306

Business Ethics in China:Confucianism, Socialist Market Economy and the Multinational*Enterprises..... 309Kam-hon Lee*

1	Introduction	309
2	Business Development in China	311
3	Confucianism and Personal Ethics.....	315
4	Socialist Market Economy and Legal Framework.....	316
5	Multinational Enterprises and the World Economy	319
6	Conclusion	320
	References	321

“Contextualism” in Business and Ethical Issues in Japan	323
---	-----

Iwao Taka

1 Philosophical and Cultural Background of Contextualism.....	323
1.1 Philosophical Background.....	324
1.2 Contextualism in Japanese Culture	324
2 Advantages of Contextualism in Business.....	325
2.1 Employees/Managers.....	326
2.2 Shareholders/Creditors	327
2.3 Customers/Community	329
2.4 Competitors/Regulators	330
3 Disadvantages of Contextualism in Business	331
3.1 Employees/Managers.....	331
3.2 Shareholders/Creditors	332
3.3 Customers/Community	334
3.4 Competitors/Regulators	334
4 Ethics Embedded in Business Context.....	336
References	337

An Islamic Framework for International Marketing Ethics	341
---	-----

Mohammad Saeed and Zafar U. Ahmed

1 Introduction	341
1.1 Importance of Islamic Countries for International Marketing	341
1.2 Importance of the Topic: Examples of Unethical Marketing Practice	342
2 Foundations of Islamic Framework with respect to Ethical Behavior....	343
2.1 In View of World Perspective	343
2.2 Higher Responsibilities: Societal/Environmental Approach.....	346
3 Just Profit Synthesis: Value Maximization Approach	348
3.1 Corruption in Marketing: An Ethical Perspective	348
3.2 Social Regulatory Institution: Legal Perspective	350
4 Islamic Ethics for Marketing Decision Making	351
4.1 Basic Concepts	351
4.2 Ethics in Product Decision Making.....	354
4.2.1 General Guidelines	354
4.2.2 Islam and Product Safety	357
4.3 Ethics and Promotion Decision Making.....	358
4.3.1 General Islamic Principles.....	358
4.3.2 The Art of Personal Selling and Sales Promotion	359
4.3.3 The Art of Advertising	359

4.4 Ethics and Pricing Decision Making 360

 4.4.1 General Islamic Principles..... 360

 4.4.2 Ethical Lapses in Pricing 361

4.5 Ethics and Distribution Decision Making 362

5 Conclusion 363

 5.1 Managerial Implications for the Multinationals 363

 5.2 Outlook 364

References..... 365

Business and Corporate Ethics in the USA: Philosophy and Practice 367

Georges Enderle

1 Introduction: Business Ethics in the USA – Neither Fad nor Mature..... 367

2 Methodological and Other Remarks 368

3 Taking Stock of Business and Corporate Ethics in the USA –
an Attempt..... 371

 3.1 Sources and Semantics 371

 3.2 Origins and Focus..... 373

 3.3 Rival Approaches to Business and Corporate Ethics 377

 3.3.1 Corporate Social Responsibility 378

 3.3.2 Stakeholder Approach 379

 3.3.3 Social Contract Theory 380

 3.3.4 Virtue Ethics 380

 3.3.5 Integrity Approaches 381

 3.3.6 Bridges to the Firm in Economic Theory 382

 3.3.7 The American Corporation 383

 3.4 Business Ethics Initiatives in Practice: from a Reactive to a
Proactive Approach? 385

 3.4.1 Substantial initiatives..... 385

 3.4.2 Codes of conduct 387

 3.4.3 Ethics training..... 387

 3.4.4 Ethics officers 388

 3.4.5 Business ethics awards 388

4 Two Types of Reasoning: The Intrinsic versus the Instrumental Value of Ethics..... 392

5 Conclusions and Open Questions 393

 5.1 An Appropriate Ethics-related Concept of the Firm 395

 5.2 Integrating Systemic Issues 395

 5.3 Facing International Challenges 396

References..... 397

Business Ethics in the Catholic Value System: The Spanish Case 401
Adela Cortina

1 Towards an Intercultural Business Ethics 401
2 The Spanish World of Values at the Origins of Capitalism..... 403
3 The Emergence of Social Market Economy in Spain 407
4 From “Franquismo” to the Welfare State..... 407
5 Ethics and Business in the Spain Heading into the 21st Century 410
 5.1 Moral Life in Business 410
 5.2 Moral Theory 412
6 As a Very Brief Conclusion 416
References 416

Business Ethics in a Transforming Economy:
Applying the Integrative Social Contracts Theory to Russia..... 419
Sheila M. Puffer and Daniel J. McCarthy

1 Integrative Social Contracts Theory 420
2 Three Forces Influencing Business Ethics in Russia 422
3 Applying Theory to Practice 424
 3.1 Extortion 424
 3.2 Managerial Buy-Outs of Enterprises 427
 3.3 Breaking Contracts 428
 3.4 Ignoring Arbitrary or “Senseless” Laws..... 430
 3.5 Personal Favoritism or Blat 432
 3.6 Employee Layoffs..... 433
4 Conclusion 434
References 436

The Interfaith Declaration: Context, Issues and Problems of Application of a Code of Ethics for International Business among those of three Major Religions. 439
Simon Webley

1 The Spread of Global Information 441
2 Rise of Public Awareness of Moral Issues 442
3 Interfaith Declaration 443
4 Method 445
5 Some Key Principles 445
 5.1 Justice 446
 5.2 Mutual Respect (love) 446

5.3 Stewardship 447

5.4 Honesty 448

6 The Declaration..... 449

6.1 Business and Political Economy..... 449

6.2 The Policies of a Business..... 450

6.3 Conduct of Individuals at Work 452

7 The Use of the Code..... 453

References 454

List of Contributors 455

Index..... 457