

Contents

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| List of figures  | xi        |
| Preface  | xiii      |
| 1 Introduction: why guns?                                      | 1  |
| Opening shots  | 1         |
| The gun question   | 3         |
| Emerging issues  | 4         |
| Opposing camps   | 5         |
| Trends in firearm-related offending                            | 10        |
| Combat ready   | 16        |
| 2 The spectre of the gun: historical and cultural perspectives | 19 |
| Mechanical and ballistic discourses                            | 19        |
| Social and historical discourses                               | 21        |
| Civilisation, authority and violence                           | 25        |
| A conquest of violence or a new form of power?                 | 29        |
| Firearms and social control in the UK                          | 37        |
| The Bill of Rights   | 41        |
| Concealed weapons and armed responses?                         | 48        |
| Civilian disarmament and social change                         | 51        |
| 3 The making of the American ‘gun culture’                     | 56 |
| Hunting, history and frontier culture                          | 56        |
| Firearms and violence  | 58        |
| The politics of guns   | 63        |
| Researching American gun control                               | 66        |
| The Second Amendment   | 69        |
| Second thoughts on the Second Amendment                        | 70        |
| The individualist interpretation                               | 71        |
| The collectivist interpretation                                | 73        |

|  |    |
|--|----|
| A mountain of paper controls          | 75 |
| Federal gun controls                  | 75 |
| Localised gun controls                | 79 |
| The queue at the gunstore             | 86 |
| Armed and dangerous to one another    | 88 |
| The public health agenda              | 90 |
| Women and guns                        | 92 |
| Saturday night's alright for fighting | 95 |

4 Discovery and construction: media coverage of the 'gun question' 97

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Guns in the news                            | 97  |
| Guns and gun cultures                       | 97  |
| Gun cultures and contemporary Britain       | 99  |
| A very British gun culture                  | 101 |
| 'Bang!' goes the neighbourhood              | 104 |
| Staring down the barrel                     | 106 |
| Bent dealers?                               | 110 |
| Cautious official pessimism                 | 113 |
| Lessons from the USA                        | 115 |
| Freedom, fun, farce, fear and commerce      | 116 |
| Responsibility, ricochets and repercussions | 122 |

5 Tragedy, aftermath and politics 128

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| From nowhere?   | 128 |
| Evil, hope and humanism                                   | 130 |
| No reason, no reasons                                     | 132 |
| A well-established pattern in a time of assassins?        | 132 |
| Through the 'lunatics loophole'                           | 134 |
| Context and event   | 136 |
| Waiting for Cullen: a political chronology of gun control | 138 |
| Endings and recriminations                                | 151 |

6 Taking stock of the gun control arguments 163

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| Plugging gaps or changing cultures                     | 164 |
| Gun control UK   | 174 |
| Quantitative criminology and international comparisons | 179 |
| The problem of handguns                                | 186 |
| The acceptability of risk                              | 193 |
| Weapons of choice and doubtful motives?                | 194 |

|          |  |            |
|----------|--|------------|
| 7 | Conclusions: culture and ricochets          | 202 |
|          | Problems of the gun: realism and relativism | 203        |
|          | Order and routine                           | 208        |
|          | After the Acts                              | 209        |
|          | Lethal practices?                           | 212        |
|          | Proper targets?                             | 220        |
|          | Bibliography                            | 229    |
|          | Index                                       | 247        |

Figures

|     |   |     |
|-----|---|-----|
| 1.1 | Notifiable offences involving handguns, shotguns and handguns causing injury in the UK: 1976–1996   | 11  |
| 1.2 | Percentage indices for notifiable offences involving handguns, shotguns and handguns causing injury in the UK: 1976–1996                  | 13  |
| 1.3 | Firearm homicides in the USA: 1962–1994   | 14  |
| 1.4 | Comparative indices for firearm offences in the UK, handgun offences causing injury in the UK and handgun homicides in the USA: 1976–1996 | 15  |
| 3.1 | US gun-related deaths by sex and race in 1988: deaths per thousand of the population  | 62  |
| 6.1 | Firearm certificates issued in the UK: 1968–1993  | 169 |
| 6.2 | Shotgun certificates issued in the UK: 1968–1993  | 169 |
| 6.3 | Rates of firearm ownership (percentage of households with guns) and gun homicide (rate per million) in Europe and the USA                 | 182 |
| 6.4 | Rates of firearm ownership (percentage of households with guns) and gun homicide (rate per million) in Europe                             | 182 |
| 6.5 | Rates of firearm ownership (percentage of households with guns) and gun homicide and suicide (rate per million) in selected countries     | 184 |
| 6.6 | Rates of firearm ownership (percentage of households with guns) and gun suicide (rate per million) in Europe and the USA                  | 185 |
| 6.7 | Index of robberies and homicides using handguns and shotguns: 1980–1994   | 188 |
| 6.8 | Firearms stolen or misappropriated: 1976–1996   | 191 |