

Contents

Chapter 1	1
Domestic Violence: The Players
The Setting	3
Primary Prevention and Domestic Violence	5
Linking Primary Prevention to Community Settings	9
Opportunities for Prevention	10
Overview	11
 Chapter 2	 13
Cops and the Community
Introduction	13
The Story of Policing in the United States	14
Opportunities for Prevention	16
History of Law Enforcement Involvement in Domestic Violence	17
Opportunity for Prevention	18
Police Function and Role	19
Opportunities for Prevention	20
The Tension between Police Administration and Line Officers	21
The Everyday Life of Law Enforcement Officers	22
Opportunities for Prevention	23
The Police and Public Scrutiny	23
The Problem with Communities	24
Opportunities for Prevention	26

Chapter 3 27

Domestic Violence, Perception, and Decision-Making

Introduction 28

Perception 29

Opportunities for Prevention 32

How Players Make Decisions 33

Unintended Outcomes 35

Dual Arrests 35

Danger 36

When the Perpetrator Is a Player 37

Opportunities for Prevention: Beyond Arrest 38

Chapter 4 41

Why Does Domestic Violence Happen?

History 41

Opportunities for Prevention 43

Theoretical Explanations 43

Biological Explanations 45

Psychological and Social Psychological Explanations 46

Sociological Models 47

Feminist Models 48

New Trends in Theory 49

Opportunities for Prevention 50

Chapter 5 53

What Do We Know about Domestic Violence?

Introduction 53

Identification 54

What Happens in an Abusive Relationship? 55

Opportunities for Prevention 56

The Patterns of Violence and Abuse 57

Opportunities for Prevention 58

Demographics: Who Gets Hit? Who Are the Victims of Abuse? 59

Race and Ethnicity 59

Class and Socioeconomic Status 59

Age 60

How Does the Victim Respond? 60

Battered Women and Their Strategies to Escape, Avoid, and Survive Abuse 61

Opportunities for Prevention 62

Chapter 6	65
When Victims Ask for Help
The Response of Helping Professions	66
Medical Setting	67
Mental Health Settings	68
Social Services Settings	68
Common Indicators of Abuse	69
Opportunities for Prevention	70
Assessment of Danger	70
Prevention, Advocacy, and Safety Planning	72
The Police Response	72
Police Setting	72
Indicators of Domestic Violence	73
Interview	76
Behaviors to Avoid in Domestic Violence Situations	78
Assessment	78
Documentation	79
Victim Safety and Advocacy	80
Opportunities for Prevention and Advocacy	81
 Chapter 7	 85
Prevention and the Community: Where Do We Go from Here?
Traditional Crime Prevention Efforts	87
The Prevention Model	87
Education	87
Understanding a Worker's Position	88
Competency Promotion	89
Community Organizations and Systems Intervention	89
Natural Caregiving	90
How to Make Women Safe in Their Own Communities	90
The Prevention Model: Helping Professions and the Community	92
Research as Mediation between Prevention Models	97
 Appendix A	 99
Victim's Safety Plan
 Appendix B	 103
Suggested Readings

References	107
Author Index	117
Subject Index	121