Tables vi
Acknowledgements x

Introduction 1

1 The literature review 10

2 The process of alienation: leaving home and homelessness 35

3 The background setting: the family home and physical support in the community 50

4 Relationships with parents at home and emotional support in the community 73

5 Experiences of abuse in the home and protection in the homeless community 97

6 Non-family institutions and freedom in the community 126

7 Summary and policy implications 160

Appendix 171
Bibliography 185

Tables

Table A	Age breakdown of London and Sydney homeless youths	6
Table B	Sex breakdown of the London and Sydney youths	6
Table C	Ethnicity of the London and Sydney youths	6
Table D	Location(s) of principal childhood home	7
Table E	Age when respondents first became homeless	8
Table F	Length of time the respondents were homeless	8
Table 1	Last place of residence before youth became homeless	35
Table 2	Reasons given for leaving home	36
Table 3	Number of family homes during childhood	51
Table 4	Primary source of family financial support during childhood	52
Table 5	Usual occupation of primary income earner in the childhood home	53
Table 6	Parents' marital status during childhood	55
Table 7	Principal carer(s) of youth during childhood	57
Table 8	Respondent's perception of parental relationship	58

Table 9 Frequency of parental arguments during respondent's childhood 58

Table 10 Subjects over which the respondent's parents would argue 59

Table 11 Respondent's reaction to parental arguments 60

Table 12 Frequency of domestic violence in the respondent's home 61

Table 13 Number of respondents who reported an alcohol abuser in their home 63

Table 14 Specific member(s) of respondent's family who abused alcohol 64

Table 15 Behavioural changes in family member due to alcohol abuse 64

Table 16 Current accommodation status 66

Table 17 The disadvantages of the homeless youth community 67

Table 18 Advantages to living in the homeless community 69

Table 19 The dangers inherent in the homeless lifestyle 70

Table 20 Respondent's ratings of relationship with mother during childhood 75

Table 21 Respondent's relationship with father during childhood 77

Table 22 Number of respondents with stepparent(s) during childhood 79

Table 23 Respondent's perception of his/her relationship with stepparent(s) 80

Table 24 The number of respondents who felt loved by their parents/carers during childhood 83

Table 25 The number of respondents who reported an overall satisfactory relationship with their parents and carers 84

Table 26 The number of respondents who said they could trust others in the community 86

Table 27 The number of respondents who felt the other homeless youths are their friends 89

Table 28 The number of respondents who currently had a sexual partner 93

Table 29 Reported incidence of sexual abuse among the youths during childhood 99

Table 30 Age when respondent was first sexually abused 100

Table 31 Total duration of sexual abuse 101

Table 32 Identity of person who sexually abused youth 101

Table 33 Number of respondents who have been physically abused during childhood 105

Table 34 Total duration of physical abuse 106

Table 35 Specific carers and others who physically abused respondent during childhood 106

Table 36 Number of respondents who reported being emotionally abused during childhood 109

Table 37 Specific carers and others who emotionally abused respondent during childhood 110

Table 38 The respondents and the violence they have seen in the homeless community 114

Table 39 The number of respondents who have been victims of violence 117

Table 40 The number of respondents who have engaged in prostitution while being homeless 120

Table 41 Respondent's assessment of his/her academic performance 127

Table 42 The perceived advantages of attending school 129

Table 43 The disadvantages associated with attending school 130

Table 44 Respondent's emotional self-assessment at school 131

Table 45 Rates of truancy from school 132

Table 46 Disruptive behaviour at school 132

Table 47 Respondent's record of expulsion from school 133

Table 48 School leaving age 134

Table 49 Number of respondents who lived in care during childhood 135

Table 50 Age when respondent first entered care 136

Table 51 Total length of time respondent lived in care 137

Table 52 Number of care placements 137

Table 53 Reason(s) for entering care 138

Table 54 The perceived advantages of living in care 139

Table 55 The perceived disadvantages of living in care 139

Table 56 Frequency with which the respondents saw their family while in care 140

Table 57 Number of youths who reported involvement in committing crime before becoming homeless 142

Table 58 Specific crimes committed before respondent became homeless 144

Table 59 Number of youths who reported committing crime after they became homeless 144

Table 60 Specific criminal activity since respondent became homeless 144

Table 61 Number of respondents who have been charged with a crime 150

Table 62 Respondent's conviction rate 150

Table 63 Total number of convictions 150

Table 64 Number of custodial sentences 151