

CONTENTS

Preface	xiii
The Author	xvii
 Part One: The Need for Social Change	 1
1. Facing the Slings and Arrows: Personal Reflections on a Life of Social Activism	3
2. Conditions for Guiding Change: Author's Note A Theory of Societal Guidance, 23	21
 Part Two: The Elements of Social Change	 43
3. Decision Making and Social Change: Author's Note Mixed Scanning Revisited (Public Administration Review), 48 Rationality Is Anti-Entropic (Journal of Economic Psychology), 67 Normative-Affective Factors: Toward a New Decision-Making Model (Journal of Economic Psychology), 91	45

4. The Responsive Community: Author's Note	125
Liberals and Communitarians
(Partisan Review), 127
Basic Human Needs, Alienation, and Inauthenticity
(American Sociological Review), 153
5. Polity and the Public Interest: Author's Note	187
Special Interest Groups Versus
Constituency Representation
(Research in Social Movements,
Conflicts, and Change), 189
The Fight Against Fraud and Abuse:
Analyzing Constituent Support
(Journal of Policy Analysis and
Management), 223
Part Three: The Structure of Social Change	243
6. Encapsulation and Self-Sustaining Systems:
Author's Note	245
Encapsulated Competition
(Journal of Post Keynesian Economics), 247
On Solving Social Problems:
Inducements or Coercion?
(Challenge), 265
7. Unification and Integration of Systems:
Author's Note	279
On Self-Encapsulating Conflicts
(Journal of Conflict Resolution), 281
A Paradigm for the Study of Political Unification
(World Politics), 302
The Epigenesis of Political Communities at the International Level
(American Journal of Sociology), 343

European Unification: A Strategy of Change
(World Politics), 372

Part Four: The Ethics of Social Change 397

8. Ethics and Change: Author's Note 399
Toward Deontological Social Sciences
(Philosophy of the Social Sciences), 401
The Case for a Multiple-Utility Conception
(Economics and Philosophy), 418
The Moral Dimension in Policy Analysis, 452

Index 469