

List of figures and tables	vii
List of abbreviations	viii
Editors' note	x
List of contributors	xi
1 Dear Minister . . . Chris Warren-Adamson	1
2 The nature of adolescence John C. Coleman	8
3 Secondary education Phil Walkling and Chris Brannigan	28
4 Youth employment and training Michael H. Banks	45
5 Sport and leisure: the not-so-hidden curriculum? Leo Hendry	62
6 Youth work and informal education Janet Paraskeva	88
7 Health matters Sylvia Tilford	104
8 Mental health services for adolescents Richard Williams and Ian Skeldon	137
9 Empowerment and child welfare Mike Stein and Nick Frost	161
10 Juvenile-justice policy in England and Wales John Pitts	172

vi Contents

11	Leaving home: housing and income – social policy on leaving home
	Damian Killeen	189
12	The adolescent as consumer
	Fiona Stewart	203
	Name index	227
	Subject index	231

Figures and tables

FIGURES

7.1	Determinants of health	105
7.2	Health promotion in the school	112
7.3	The elements of health promotion	116
9.1	The dimensions of exploitation	162
12.1	The fall, rise . . . and fall of youth	206
12.2	The youth population	208
12.3	Change in age groups, 1989–2000	209
12.4	Average weekly total income, 14–16 year olds	211
12.5	Average gross weekly earnings	212

TABLES

7.1	Leading causes of death, 15–24 years, England and Wales	107
7.2	Percentage reporting symptoms/illness in past 12 months, by sex	107
12.1	The spending priorities of 16–24 year olds, 1990	214
12.2	‘Which of these things do you think that you will want to have before you are 40 and which do you think you will be able to afford?’	218
12.3	‘How important is it for you, at the moment, to do something about each of the following?’	220
12.4	How young people would like to be described	220
12.5	How much you agree with various people and how much influence they have	222