

Contents

List of tables	vii
List of contributors	viii
Preface	xiii
Introduction: defining and addressing the issues
Roger Shaw	xiv
Introduction: theory, practice, and an example
Nigel Walker	xvii
Part I The impact of parental imprisonment upon children
1 The separation of children and parents: some issues and problems
Martin Richards	3
2 Infants with mothers in prison
Liza Catan	13
3 Mothers inside, children outside: what happens to the dependent children of female inmates?
Jane Woodrow	29
4 Imprisoned fathers and the orphans of justice
Roger Shaw	41
5 Prison rule 102: 'stand by your man': the impact of penal policy on the families of prisoners
Kathleen McDermott and Roy D. King	50
6 Men's imprisonment: the financial cost to women and children
Ann Davis	74
7 We are not the problem: black children and their families within the criminal justice system
Ya'el Amira	86

Part II The response of society

8	The child, the imprisoned parent and the law Richard Vogler	101
9	Prisoners' children: the role and responsibility of the prison service in England and Wales Fiona Clarke, Tim Newell and Alan Rayfield	114
10	Health, social, and educational needs of parents and children affected by imprisonment in Scotland Dan Anderson, John Basson, Kay Blackstock, Tom Buyers, Angus Creighton, Kate Gill, Roisin Hall, Moir Maclean, Margaret McTaggart, John Pearce. Edited with an introduction by Ian Thompson	127
11	The Northern Ireland troubles: long-term prisoners and their children W. James Hughes	147
12	Prisoners' families: should the probation service have a role? Linda Wilson-Croome	161
13	A link with normality: the role a school could play to help a prisoner's child in crisis Stephen Moore	170
14	Prisoners' children: the role of prison visitors' centres Eva Lloyd	178
15	Conclusion: politics, policy, and practice Roger Shaw	192
	Name index	201
	Subject index	204

Tables

4.1 Marital status of men at time of sentence	42
4.2 Responsibility for children at time of prison sentence by men with wives or cohabitees	42
4.3 Children fathered by prisoners but who were not living with wife or cohabitee at time of sentence	43
4.4 Age range of men over 21 as percentage of receptions	44