

Contents

PREFACE	vii
1. Introduction and Overview	1
Fiscal Measures as a Policy Alternative	2
Strengths and Weaknesses of the Direct Regulation Strategy	3
The Marketable Pollution Rights Alternative	5
The Role of Fiscal Measures	6
Terminology	7
Types of Environmental Fiscal Measures	8
Important Considerations in Environmental Tax Policy	10
Regressivity of Environmental Taxes	11
Need for Coherency in Tax Policy	11
Organization of the Studies	12
2. Environmental Fiscal Policy in France	15
Public Funds and the Environment: An Attempted Definition of an Environmental Fiscal Policy	16
The Diversity of the Public Funds Allocated for Environmental Policies	18
The Legal Status of Some Environmental Taxes	28
Conclusion	59
3. Environmental Taxes in Germany	65
Institutional Background	65

General Considerations Affecting Taxes and Environmental Protection in German Law and Policy	66
The Existing Tax Law	81
Environmentally Directive Special Taxes and Fees (Sonderabgaben)	95
Environmentally Directive Tax Reform Proposals	101
Conclusion	106
4. Environmental Taxes in Sweden	120
Institutional Background	120
Environmental Policy and Income Tax Rules	122
Income Tax Rules	126
Fiscal Initiatives	139
5. Environmental Taxes in the United Kingdom	159
The Legislative Authorities	161
General Principles of the Income Tax System and How They Affect the Environment	167
Provisions that Provide a Tax Benefit, but that Are Not Slanted to Favor Environmental Issues	172
Initiatives	174
6. Environmental Taxes in the United States	182
Institutional Background	182
Compatibility of Tax and Environmental Policies	186
Tax Initiatives	202
INDEX	235
ABOUT THE EDITORS AND CO-AUTHORS	243