

CONTENTS

Foreword	iii
1. Legal Differences in Juvenile Criminology in Europe Frieder Dünkel	1
2. Protection, Intervention and the Rights of Children and Young People Nicholas Queloz	30
3. Rethinking the Juvenile Justice System Travis Hirschi and Michael Gottfredson	46
4. Young Offender Ideologies and the Danish Discourse Beth Grothe Nielsen	56
5. Looking for One Age Irene Sagel-Grande	66
6. Recent Trends in Official Statistics on Juvenile Offending in England and Wales Gordon C. Barclay and David Turner	75
7. A Portrait of Juvenile Crime: Craigavon Juvenile Court Statistics 1985-1989 Joan McQuoid and Stephen Bloomer	86
8. Tackling the Dilemmas for Policy and Practice in Justice Systems Divided by Age Adrian Bell and Philip Gibson	97
9. Parental Responsibility for Juvenile Offenders Rob Allen	105
10. Managing the Transition: Implications of the Introduction of a Youth Court in England and Wales Charles Bell and Kevin Haines	118
11. Criminalising Truancy: Legal and Welfare Responses to School Non-Attendance Julia Wardhaugh	133
12. Social Information and Decision-Making in Juvenile Liaison Panels John Macmillan	144