

Contents

ABBREVIATIONS, xiii

1 Introduction, 3

Social Movements and the Political Process, 5
Growth, Maintenance, and Decline of Social Movements, 7
The Study, 8

PART I

ORIGINS OF THE MOVEMENT TO LEGALIZE ABORTION

2 The Emergence of the Movement, 13

Professionals and Established Organizations in the Abortion Reform Movement, 13
The Creation of a Repeal Movement, 16
Grass-Roots Participation: The Cycle of Protest, 18
Coordination and Coalition in the Movement, 24
Conclusion, 27

3 Collective Action Through Established Means, 29

The Politics of Persuasion, 30
Activist Backgrounds and Institutionalized Channels of Influence, 32
Organizational Deficits and Movement Diversity, 37
Conclusion, 42

4 Confrontation and Direct Action, 43

The Creation of a New Consciousness, 44
Feminist Mobilization and Direct Action, 51
Conclusion, 54

PART II
SURVIVING THE VICTORY, 1973-1976

5 Movement Maintenance and Reorganization, 57

Countermovement Mobilization and Movement
Maintenance, 58

Support from Established Organizations and Interest
Groups, 59

Multi-Issue Organizations and Movement
Maintenance, 61

Organizational Changes and Movement Stability, 63
Conclusion, 65

6 Defending Roe v. Wade, 66

Proactive Actions Following the Victory, 66

Movement Reactions to Countermovement Actions, 69

Organizational Influences on Collective Action, 72

Conclusion, 76

PART III
COUNTERMOVEMENT VICTORIES AND MOVEMENT EXPANSION, 1977-1983

7 Organizational Expansion and Transformation, 81

New Threats to Abortion Rights, 81

Pro-Choice Growth and Development, 83

Professionalization and Formalization of Pro-Choice
Movement Organizations, 87

Conclusion, 92

8 Single-Issue Politics, 93

Grass-Roots Organizing and Political Action, 93

Institutionalized Tactics and Narrowed Demands, 103

Conclusion, 108

9 The Reproductive Rights Movement, 110

Origins of the Reproductive Rights Movement, 110

Multi-Issue Demands, 113

Strategies and Tactics, 114

Conclusion, 121

PART IV
THE PRO-CHOICE MOVEMENT IN THE 1980s
AND BEYOND

10 Victory and Survival, 1983–1989, 125

Opportunities for Action, 125

Countermovement Initiatives and Movement Survival, 127

The Reagan–Bush War on Abortion, 134

Conclusion, 136

11 The Webster Ruling and Its Aftermath, 137

The Battle Intensifies, 137

Professionalization Versus Grass-Roots Action?, 145

Conclusion, 146

12 Conclusion, 148

The Cycle of Protest, 148

Movement–Countermovement Dynamics, 150

Social Movements in the American Political System, 153

APPENDIX A

Structures and Resources of Pro-Choice Movement Organizations, 157

National Organizations, 157

State and Local Organizations, 169

APPENDIX B

Organizational Newsletters and Documents, 180

Newsletters of National Organizations, 180

Newsletters of Local Organizations, 182

Manuscript Collections, 183

APPENDIX C

Interviews with Pro-Choice Activists, 186

NOTES, 188

REFERENCES, 209

INDEX, 219