

---

Contents

- 1. Introduction
Barbara Jancar-Webster 1

Part I
Problems and Changes in Environmental Management

- 2. Political and Social Changes in Poland
An Environmental Perspective
Jakub Szacki, Irmina Glowacka, Anna Liro, and Barbara Szulczewska 11
- 3. New Directions in Environmental Management in Hungary
Sandor Peter 28
- 4. Environmental Management in Czecho-Slovakia
Eva Adamova 42
- 5. Old and New in the Environmental Policy of the Former Soviet Union
What Has Already Occurred and What Is To Be Done
Michael Kozeltsev 58
- 6. New Directions in Environmental Protection
Management in the Baltic States
Evaldas Vebra 73

Part II
The Influence of Environmental Movements

7. The Emergence of the Environmental Movement in Eastern Europe and Its Role in the Revolutions of 1989 Duncan Fisher	89
8. The History of Environmental Protection in Poland and the Growth of Awareness and Activism Stanley J. Kabala	114
9. Red Pollution, Green Evolution, Revolution in Hungary Environmentalists and Societal Transition Miklos Persanyi	134
10. Ecology in Slovenia Leo Seserko	158
11. Soviet Greens: Who Are They? The View from Inside Evgenii A. Shvarts and Irina Prochozova	176
12. The East European Environmental Movement and the Transformation of East European Society Barbara Jancar-Webster	192
13. Conclusion Barbara Jancar-Webster	220
Index	227