

Contents

List of Tables and Figures	vi
Preface	x
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 Introduction	2
2 Global Enterprises	46
3 The Global Role of Business	98
4 Global Culture	160
5 The Global Economy: Trade, FDI, Capital	234
6 The Global Economy: Labor	306
7 Global Political and Legal Environments	388
8 Global Industries and Tasks	456
9 Globalization of Technologies	516
10 Globalization of the Natural Environment	590
Index	648

List of Tables and Figures

Tables

1.1	Asian GDPs	14
1.2	Sample acquisitions for 1996 and 1997	17
1.3	World's top 10 branded goods, 1996	22
1.4	Blurring boundaries	26
2.1	Stateless organizations, 1997	53
2.2	Success characteristics for global start-ups	57
2.3	Size and ownership of global enterprises	58
2.4	Dimensions of paradox	66
2.5	Internal focus of managerial attention	76
2.6	A comparison of domestic and global mindsets	89
3.1	The top 50 companies from the Business Week 100	105
3.2	World's top 100 economies, 1995	107
3.3	Asia's billionaires in the $5 billion club	108
3.4	Confucian values evident in China and Japan	126
3.5	US, Japanese, and Western European models of business	128
3.6	Women in positions of corporate authority, 1997 and 1998	132
3.7	Levels of strategy defined	141
3.8	CEO roles and behaviors	147
3.9	Transnationally competent managers	149
4.1	Cultural contrasts	170
4.2	Scores on four national cultural dimensions for 53 countries or regions	172
4.3	Country comparisons on six dimensions of culture	176
4.4	Globalization of popular music	186
4.5	Global demographic groups	197
4.6	Cultural barriers vs winning shared values	205

4.7	What you see is (not) what you get	212
4.8	Sources of workplace diversity	216
4.9	Corporate diversity initiatives	218
4.10	Characteristics of successful global team leaders	221
5.1	Index of Economic Freedom, selected 1997 rankings	241
5.2	Global price comparison of selected goods and services (dollars)	247
5.3	How they stack up	251
5.4	The hamburger standard	252
5.5	Real GDP growth, in annual average (%)	253
5.6	Hidden champions	258
5.7	World direct investment flows (billions of dollars)	263
5.8	Approaches to decision-making	285
5.9	Activities across borders	288
6.1	Normal working time in the manufacturing sector, 1992	319
6.2	Hourly compensation worldwide	321
6.3	Engineering compensation	323
6.4	Hourly wage comparisons in the international clothing industry, 1992	324
6.5	Unemployment rates	333
6.6	High unemployment forecasts (%)	334
6.7	Changes in international human rights regimes, 1945–1985	348
6.8	Staffing philosophy	364
6.9	Principles behind the new vs old career paradigms	370
7.1	Tax freedom day in selected countries, 1995	394
7.2	Privatization, by industry, 1994	398
7.3	Acts of aggression, 1996	407
7.4	A sample of trading groups	411
7.5	Pacific Rim trade: statistics on APEC members	419
7.6	Nongovernmental organizations: a sample	426
7.7	Conflict diagnostic model	447
8.1	Intrafirm activities by industry, 1982	467
8.2	Global industries and participants	468
8.3	Global industry leaders, 1997	471
8.4	The hidden champions' both/and philosophy	474
8.5	Les Hénokiens 22	479
8.6	Restructuring industrial economies	480
8.7	National competitiveness rankings, 1995–1997	483
8.8	Fostering fit: matching global demands with business competencies	490
8.9	Global presence and strategy combine to influence the relationship between a business and its industry	496
8.10	Who is where? Globalization at the top	500
8.11	Sixteen characteristics for achieving sustainable advantage through people	500

List of tables and figures

8.12	Strategy, structure, and cultural behaviors appropriate to firm presence abroad	502
9.1	Historical innovations and breakthroughs	522
9.2	The effects of television technology	528
9.3	Information Age change	533
9.4	Internet hosts per person, 1996	549
9.5	World Wide Web domains, 1998	551
9.6	Internet use and national priorities	556
9.7	Northern Telecom's transformation, 1985–1995	565
10.1	Labor productivity in OECD nations, 1960, 1985, 1995, measured by value added per hour worked	594
10.2	Highest six estimated populations for 2050 (millions)	612
10.3	By the millions	619
10.4	DFD applications	631

Figures

2.1	Managing globalization of business	74
3.1	The corporate business model and the corporate community model of business	123
3.2	The process ends where it begins	127
3.3	Latin American values as illustrated in layers	130
3.4	Where the overseas (nonresident) Indians live	130
3.5	Evolution of organizational structures	139
3.6	The self-renewal process in Japanese firms	144
4.1	Culture: what you see doesn't tell you why	165
4.2	Maslow's hierarchy of needs	168
4.3	Schwartz's two-dimensional model of motivational values	178
4.4	Traditional influences of culture on business organizations	180
4.5	Business activities in a global context	182
4.6	Identify the icon	213
5.1	A closed national economic system	242
5.2	An open system view of national economies	244
5.3	Floating away	248
5.4	Human Development Index: country ranking, 1994 (selected countries)	255
5.5	Expanding calculus of self-interest	257
5.6	Service industries	260
5.7	Changes in ratio of real trade to real GDP, 1960–1994 (%)	262
5.8	Latin America looks inward	265
5.9	Performance of the Dow Jones World Stock Market Indexes	267

5.10	Dollar/yen fluctuations, 1990–1998	271
5.11	Global functional structure	289
5.12	Global divisional structure	290
5.13	Global matrix structure	291
6.1	The world's labor force by sector and country income level	313
6.2	Comparative compensation	322
6.3	By how much does education raise wages?	327
6.4	The immigrant waves reaching Europe: origins of asylum-seekers in Europe in 1988 before the Berlin Wall collapsed, and in 1991	336
6.5	Two scenarios: wage convergence/wage divergence	344
6.6	Spider's web organizations	358
6.7	Japanese- and Western-style organizational knowledge creation	361
7.1	Indonesia's Agency for Strategic Industries	401
7.2	Gangs and global crime	409
7.3	Who are we?	415
7.4	ISO 9000 leadership process	431
7.5	Corruption perception index, 1997	444
7.6	The stress curve	445
8.1	Five forces of industry competition	464
8.2	The shamrock organization	504
8.3	Structural orientations	505
8.4	Examples of interlinkages for N.V. Philips	508
9.1	Growth of scientific knowledge	538
9.2	Nolan's stage theory of computer use in business	541
9.3	Personal computer shipments in millions	545
9.4	The shape of the Internet	547
9.5	International connectivity	548
9.6	The pace of change: the market for global telecommunications services	558
9.7	Industry power shift	564
9.8	Some technology hot spots	567
9.9	Business software piracy rates, 1994–1996	572
10.1	Population growth	614
10.2	The issue wheel	618
10.3	Gassing up the world: the world's biggest emitters of carbon dioxide (in millions of metric tons)	627