

Contents

Preface	vii
---------	-----

PART I WHAT WE KNOW AND DO NOT KNOW ABOUT GANGS

1. Origins and Problems of Gang Research in the United States Daniel J. Monti	3
2. Gangs, Drugs, and Violence Joan Moore	27

PART II THE BEHAVIOR AND ORGANIZATION OF GANGS IN DIFFERENT SETTINGS

3. Anatomy of a Wilding Gang Scott Cummings	49
4. "Down With the Program": Racial Attitudes and Group Violence Among Youth in Bensonhurst and Gravesend Howard Pinderhughes	75

5. The Established Gang Diego Vigil	95
6. Hispanic Street Gangs in Chicago's Public Schools Ray Hutchison and Charles Kyle	113
7. Blazon Nouveau: Gang Graffiti in the Barrios of Los Angeles and Chicago Ray Hutchison	137
8. The Working Gang Felix Padilla	173
9. Gang Organization and Migration Jerome H. Skolnick, Ricky Bluthenthal, and Theodore Correl	193
10. Gangs in More- and Less-Settled Communities Daniel J. Monti	219

PART III WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT GANGS

11. Moral Panic and the Response to Gangs in California Pat Jackson with Cary Rudman	257
12. Gangs and Civil Rights Robert A. Destro	277
13. Public Policy and Gangs: Social Science and the Urban Underclass Scott Cummings and Daniel J. Monti	305
Contributors	321
Selected Bibliography	325
Index	353