

Contents

Acknowledgements	vii
Introduction	1
1 Ideology, Consciousness, Hegemony	6
Ideology	6
Image systems	9
Consciousness	21
Hegemony	31
Summary	42
2 Social Rules and Power	44
Rule	44
Rules in society	46
Power	54
Lines of authority	56
The special authority of electronic media	58
Public images and private practices: media, rules, and the macro/micro question	60
Rules in perspective	64
3 Culture and Cultural Power	66
Race and class	67
Habitus	69

vi Contents

Money really isn't everything: symbolic and cultural power	71
People's culture	72
Suite culture and street culture: of institutions and audiences	73
Popular cultural capital: black gold	81
Culture and rules	85
4 The Active Audience	87
Uses and gratifications	90
The functionalist tradition	94
A psychological approach	97
Needs	98
Motives	101
Methods	102
Methods and need gratification	105
Imagination and method	109
Communication research and cultural studies	111
5 Meaning in Motion	113
Institutions and imperialism	115
Institutions and technology: who's running the show?	120
Defying the power elite: a contemporary case study	127
Can institutions and technology be managed?	133
Making meaning	139
New cultural territories	145
Globalization	147
Deterritorialization	151
Cultural melding and mediation	153
Reterritorialization	159
6 Itineraries of the Everyday	165
The cultural factor	173
A final word	174
Notes	176
Glossary	183
References	194
Index	204