
CONTENTS

Foreword		xi
PART ONE	IN THE BEGINNING	1
	1 Introduction	3
	The Debates	4
	Givens	8
	The Current Policy Context: The Past as Prologue	10
	A Caveat on Management	12
	Drug Fighting Strategies: From Policy to Practice	13
	A Word about Methodology	14
	A Final Reflection: Drugs, Security, the Underclass, and Inner City Poverty	16
	Organization of this Book	17
	2 Anti-Crime and Management Research and Demonstration: Two Decades of Theory and Practice	19
	Introduction	19
	The 1970s: A Decade of Innovation	21
	The Reagan Era	28
	The Re-emergence of Concern for Management and Security Strategies: The Drug Assault	31
	Crime, Fear, and Violence	34
	Lessons Worth Learning from the Past Two Decades	38
PART TWO	THE CASE STUDIES	53
	3 Boston	55
	Dorchester Bay	55
	Gallivan Boulevard	70
	4 New York	81
	St. Nicholas	81
	O'Dwyer Gardens	93

5 San Francisco	111
Valencia Gardens and Holly Court	111
The San Francisco Backdrop	113
King-Garvey Cooperative Apartments	123
Reflection on the Cases	131
PART THREE ISSUES AND STRATEGIES	135
6 Context Setting	137
Introduction	137
Drugs	137
Problem People and Problem Projects: Drugs and the Underclass	146
The Neighborhood Effect	156
The Dual Agenda	162
7 Program Elements	165
Screening and Selection: Who Should Live in Subsidized Housing?	165
Security: A Continuing Tradition	170
Eviction—The New Silver Bullet?	176
Social Services	188
8 Organizational Issues	195
Networks	195
Management and Tenant Leadership: The Creation of a Shared Vision	203
Institutional and Political Environment	209
Stress	210
PART FOUR THE IDEAL AND THE POSSIBLE	217
9 Conclusions	219
If I Had a Hammer	219
Where Do We Stand?	224
Appendix	233
References	239
About the Author	245