

Contents

Illustrations	ix
Preface	1
Part I: The Structure of Religious Groups
Chapter 1: Japanese Religious Affiliations: Motives and Obligations	15
Part II: The Dynamics of Social Conflict
Chapter 2: Pilgrimage and World Renewal	45
Chapter 3: The Cross and the Cudgel	81
Part III: The Dynamics of Social and Economic Change
Chapter 4: The Weber Thesis and the Economic Development of Japan	113
Chapter 5: Buddhism and Modernization	153
Chapter 6: Ittōen: The Work Ethic of a Buddhist Utopia	189
Part IV: Secularization and National Identity
Chapter 7: The Secularization of Japanese Religion	229
Chapter 8: Japan Theory and Civil Religion	253
Notes	271
Index	319

Illustrations

Figures

1. Locative and Adventitious Affiliations / 32
2. Obligations, Motives, and Religious Institutions / 36
3. Traditional Society / 122
4. Development and Accommodation / 123
5. How Eastasia Outpaces its Neighbors / 126
6. Summary of Morishima's Position / 127
7. Post-Confucian Industrial Society / 147
8. Turner's Structure and Antistructure / 204
9. Nishida Tenkō's Transformation Scenario / 220
10. Gallup Survey of Religious Beliefs / 233

Photos

1. Exchange with a God / 18
2. Miyaza Preparing Offerings / 20
3. Buddhist Family Temple and Graveyard / 23
4. Sudden Death Temple / 26
5. Confraternity / 29
6. Men Pushing a Festival Palanquin / 114
7. Morning Discussion in a Japanese Bank / 184
8. Statues of Nishida Tenkō and His Wife / 190

- 9. Retreatants Leaving to Clean Toilets / 200
- 10. Ittōen Members Leaving Their Homes / 210
- 11. Receiving a Truck from the Light / 211
- 12. Sensharei / 241
- 13. Taiyaki-kun Palanquin / 243